Financial Services Guide

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE AND CONTENT OF THIS FSG

This Financial Services Guide ("FSG") dated 31 March 2016 is an important document. You should read it carefully and make sure you understand it. This FSG provides generic information about UBS Securities Australia Limited (ABN 62 008 586 481) ("UBS Securities Australia") and UBS Nominees Pty Limited (ABN 32 001 450 522) ("UBS Nominees") (together, "us", "we", "our") and the services we offer.

This FSG also provides specific information about how you pay for our services. UBS Securities Australia and UBS Nominees are providing this FSG to give you key information about the types of financial services we offer. The FSG is for UBS structured products and services clients and is intended to assist you in deciding whether to use any of the services offered.

THE FSG CONTAINS, AMONG OTHER THINGS:

- a summary of the financial services which we are authorised to provide and the kinds of financial products to which those services relate;
- information about the capacity in which we act when providing services to you;
- information about your rights as an investor;
- details on how you can instruct us in relation to your investment;
- information about the Statement of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement(s) ("PDS") which you may receive from us;
- information about remuneration that may be paid to us and other relevant persons in relation to the services provided;
- information about how complaints against us are dealt with; and
- information which you can request when you are provided with further market-related advice.

In addition to this FSG, you may, from time to time, receive from UBS Securities Australia a PDS, a Statement of Advice ("SOA"), a Record of Advice or our Best Execution arrangements.

It is not UBS Securities Australia's policy to provide personal financial product advice. If however, you do receive personal financial product advice from UBS Securities Australia, you will be provided with an SOA. The SOA will include a statement of UBS Securities Australia's advice, the basis for that advice, as well as information about remuneration and fees that UBS Securities Australia may receive in connection with giving you the advice and interests, relationships or associations that may influence the advice.

If UBS Securities Australia makes a recommendation to acquire a particular financial product (other than securities) or offers to issue, or arrange the issue of a financial product to you, it will also provide you with a PDS. There are a number of circumstances in which UBS Securities Australia may not be required to provide a PDS including: where you already have a current PDS; where you hold a financial product of the same kind and you have access to current information about that kind of financial product; or where the offer is made under a distribution reinvestment plan or switching facility.

The PDS contains details about the particular product and any significant risks associated with holding the product, any amounts that you must pay, and in the case of products which will or may generate a return, information about any commission or other similar payments that will or may impact on the amount of the returns payable to you.

Our Best Execution arrangements contain important information about how your orders are executed by UBS Securities Australia through a Relevant Exchange (such as ASX or Chi-X) or otherwise. You should read the document summarising these arrangements carefully before deciding whether you wish to use the services that we offer.
