Section 1 – Important Notice

Issuers

This document relates to a debt issuance program ("Program") established by UBS AG and UBS Investments Australia Pty Ltd (ABN 79 002 585 677) ("UBSIA"). UBS AG may act through its Australia Branch (ABN 47 088 129 613, AFSL 231087) or any of its other branches outside of Switzerland as it may from time to time determine. The Issuers are issuers of notes up to the then applicable Program Amount (as defined in the section entitled "Summary of the Program" below) under the Program (together referred to as "Notes"). UBS AG and UBSIA are together referred to as the "Issuers" and each an "Issuer". The Issuers together with their subsidiaries are referred to as "UBS AG Group".

Issuer's responsibility

This document has been prepared by, and issued with the authority of, the Issuers. The Issuers accept responsibility for the information contained herein other than information provided by the Arranger, the Dealers and the Agent (in their capacity as such and each as defined in the section entitled "Summary of the Program" below) in relation to their respective descriptions in the section entitled "Directory" below.

To the best of its knowledge and belief, each Issuer confirms that the information contained in this document with respect to itself and the UBS AG Group is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Place of issuance

Subject to applicable laws, regulations and directives, an Issuer may issue Notes under the Program in any country including Australia and countries in Europe and Asia but not in the United States of America unless such Notes are registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) ("U.S. Securities Act") or an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act is available.

Terms and conditions of issue

Each issue of Notes will be made pursuant to such documentation as the Issuer may determine. This document is referred to as Part 1 of the Information Memorandum for each issue of Notes ("Part 1 IM") and applies to all Notes issued under the Program. Certain Notes share certain common terms which are set out in a separate document referred to as Part 2 of the Information Memorandum for those Notes ("Part 2 IM"). Each Series of Notes is designated as being of a particular type of "Product" where the Information Memorandum ("IM") for that Product is comprised of this Part 1 IM and the Part 2 IM for that Product, as supplemented by any Supplementary Information Memorandum issued by the Issuer(s) from time to time.

Notes will be issued in series (each a "Series"). A pricing supplement will be issued for each Series of Notes (each a "Pricing Supplement"). A Pricing Supplement will contain details such as Product type, Underlying Asset, Issue Price, Issue Date, Valuation Dates, Observation Dates, details of any periodic or maturity payments, together with any other terms and conditions not set out in the Information Memorandum that may be applicable to that Series of Notes.

The General Conditions applicable to all Notes are set out in Section 8 of this Part 1 IM. Additional terms that are applicable to a particular type of Product are set out in the Part 2 IM, including the Underlying Asset Conditions in Section 1 of the Part 2 IM and the Specific Terms for the Product in Section 2 of the Part 2 IM. The General Conditions, the applicable Underlying Asset Conditions and the applicable Specific Terms are collectively referred to as the "Product Conditions" for the relevant Product.

The terms and conditions applicable to a Series of Notes comprise the Product Conditions applicable to Series, as supplemented, amended, modified or replaced by the Pricing Supplement applicable to the Series (together, the "Terms" for that Series of Notes).

Form of Notes and Clearing Arrangements

Except as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes will be issued in registered form and constituted by, and owing under, a deed poll executed by the Issuer. Notes may be lodged in a clearing system such as Clearstream Banking S.A. ("Clearstream") and transactions relating to interests in the Notes may be carried out through the relevant clearing and settlement system. The Issuer may determine to lodge Notes in any Clearing System it determines from time to time, as specified in the related Pricing Supplement.

As at the date of this Part 1 IM, the Issuers' intention is to lodge the Notes in the Clearstream System. However, Notes may be lodged in other clearing systems in future, e.g. the Euroclear System or Austraclear System, as specified in the Pricing Supplement.

The rights of a holder of interests in a Note held through a Clearing System are subject to the respective rules and regulations for accountholders of the Clearing System and the terms and conditions of agreements between the Clearing System and its nominee. In addition, any transfer of interests in a Note will be subject to the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) ("Corporations Act") and the requirements for minimum consideration as set out herein and in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

The Issuer will not be responsible for the operation of the clearing arrangements which is a matter for the clearing institutions, their nominees, their participants and the investors.

Listing

Unlisted Notes may be issued pursuant to the Program. Application may also be made to list Notes of a particular Series on a securities exchange. The relevant Pricing Supplement in respect of the issue of any Notes will specify whether or not such Notes are intended to be listed on a securities exchange.

No independent verification

The only role of the Registrar in the preparation of the Information Memorandum has been to confirm to the Issuer that its description in the section entitled "Directory" is accurate as at the Preparation Date (as defined below). Apart from that the Registrar has not independently verified the information contained in the Information Memorandum. Accordingly, no representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and, no responsibility is accepted by the Registrar as to the accuracy or completeness of the Information Memorandum or any further information supplied by the Issuer in connection with the Program.

The Registrar expressly does not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer or any of its Affiliates at any time or to advise any holder of a Note of any information coming to their attention with respect to the Issuer and make no representations as to the ability of the Issuer to comply with its obligations under the Notes. The Registrar does not make any representation as to the performance of the Issuer, the maintenance of capital or any particular rate of return, nor does the Registrar guarantee the payment of capital or any particular rate of capital or income return, in each case, on the Notes.

Intending purchasers to make independent investment decision and obtain tax advice

The Information Memorandum contains only the Terms applicable to a Series of Notes. Neither the information contained in the Information Memorandum nor any other information supplied in connection with the Program or the issue of any Notes is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation in respect of the Issuer or any Notes and should not be considered or relied on as a recommendation or a statement of opinion (or a report of either of those things) by any of the Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers or any Agent that any recipient of the Information Memorandum or any other information supplied in connection with the Program or the issue of any Notes should subscribe for, purchase or otherwise deal in any Notes or any rights in respect of any Notes.

Each investor contemplating subscribing for, purchasing or otherwise dealing in any Notes or any rights in respect of any Notes should:

- (a) make and rely upon (and shall be taken to have made and relied upon) its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs of, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of, the Issuer and the Guarantor (if applicable);

- (b) determine for themselves the relevance of the information contained in the Information Memorandum and any other information supplied in connection with the Program or the issue of any Notes, and must base their investment decision solely upon their independent assessment and such investigations as they consider necessary; and
- (c) consult their own tax advisers concerning the application of any tax laws applicable to their particular situation.

No advice is given in respect of the suitability of Notes as an investment for a purchaser or in respect of the legal or taxation treatment of investors or purchasers in connection with an investment in any Notes or rights in respect of them. Each investor is advised to consult its own professional adviser to assess the financial, legal, taxation and other consequences of an investment in Notes taking into account their specific needs, objectives and circumstances.

Risks

Section 6 of this Part 1 IM describes some of the general risks of investing in Notes. Different Products are likely to carry different risks – information on key risks relating to a particular Product is included in the Part 2 IM for that Product. Additional risk disclosures may also be included in the Pricing Supplement for a Series.

Neither the Information Memorandum nor any other information (including a Pricing Supplement) supplied in connection with the Program or the issue of any Notes describes all of the risks of an investment in Notes. Prospective investors should consult their own professional, financial, legal and tax advisers about risks associated with an investment in any Notes and the suitability of investing in the Notes in light of their particular circumstances.

No offer

The Information Memorandum does not, and is not intended to, constitute an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers or any Agent to any person to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise deal in any Notes.

Selling restrictions and no disclosure

Neither the Information Memorandum nor any other disclosure document in relation to the Notes has been, or will be, lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (“ASIC”) and no action has been taken which would permit an offering of the Notes in circumstances that would require disclosure under Parts 6D.2 or 7.9 of the Corporations Act. The Information Memorandum is not a prospectus or other disclosure document for the purposes of the Corporations Act.

The distribution and use of the Information Memorandum, including any Pricing Supplement, and any advertisement or other offering material, and the offer, sale or delivery of Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions and intending purchasers and other investors should inform themselves about them and observe any such restrictions. In particular, no action has been taken by any of the Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers or any Agents which would permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of the Information Memorandum or any such document in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required.

For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of the Notes, and on the distribution of the Information Memorandum, any Pricing Supplement or other offering material relating to the Notes, see the section entitled “Selling Restrictions” below.

A person may not (directly or indirectly) offer for subscription or purchase or issue an invitation to subscribe for or buy Notes, nor distribute or publish the Information Memorandum or any other offering material or advertisement relating to the Notes except if the offer or invitation, or distribution or publication, complies with all applicable laws, regulations and directives.

No registration in the United States

The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act. The Notes may not be offered, sold, delivered or transferred, at any time, within the United States of America, its territories or possessions or to, or for the account or benefit of U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act ("Regulation S")) except in a transaction exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act.

No authorisation

No person has been authorised to give any information or make any representations not contained in or consistent with the Information Memorandum in connection with the Issuer, the Program or the issue or sale of the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers, or any Agent.

Agency and distribution arrangements

The Issuer has agreed to pay the Agents' fees for undertaking their respective roles and reimburse them for certain of their expenses incurred in connection with the Program.

The Issuer may also pay a fee to a Dealer in respect of the Notes subscribed by it or pay a fee to a distributor for distributing the Notes. The Issuer may agree to reimburse a Dealer or distributor for certain expenses incurred in connection with this Program and may indemnify any Dealer or distributor against certain liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of Notes.

The Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers, any distributor and any Agent, and their respective related entities, directors, officers and employees may have pecuniary or other interests in the Notes and may also have interests pursuant to other arrangements and may receive fees, brokerage and commissions and may act as a principal in dealing in any Notes.

Currencies

In the Information Memorandum:

- (a) references to "A$" or "Australian dollars" or "AUD" are to the lawful currency of the Commonwealth of Australia;
- (b) references to "US$" or "U.S. Dollars" or "USD" are to the lawful currency of the United States of America; and
- (c) references to "EUR" or "€" are reference to the lawful currency of the European Union.

Currency of information

The information contained in each Information Memorandum is prepared as of its Preparation Date. Neither the delivery of the Information Memorandum nor any offer, issue or sale made in connection with the Information Memorandum at any time implies that the information contained in it is correct, that any other information supplied in connection with the Program or the issue of Notes is correct, or that there has been no change (adverse or otherwise) in the financial conditions or affairs of the Issuer, at any time subsequent to the Preparation Date. In particular, the Issuer is under no obligation to update such information at any time after an issue of Notes.

In this Information Memorandum, "Preparation Date" means:

- (a) in relation to the Part 1 IM, the date indicated on its face or, if this Part 1 IM has been amended or supplemented, the date indicated on the face of that amendment or supplement;
- (b) in relation to a Part 2 IM, the date indicated on its face or, if the Part 2 IM has been amended or supplemented, the date indicated on the face of that amendment or supplement;
- (c) in relation to annual reports and any financial statements incorporated in the Information Memorandum, the date up to or as at the date on which such annual reports and financial statements relate; and
- (d) in relation to any other item of information which is to be read in conjunction with the Information Memorandum, the date indicated on its face as being its date of release or effectiveness.

Investors should review, amongst other things, the documents which are deemed to be incorporated in the Information Memorandum by reference when deciding whether or not to purchase any Notes.

Stabilisation

In connection with any issue of Notes outside Australia, the Dealer (if any) designated as stabilising manager in any relevant Pricing Supplement may over-allot or effect transactions outside Australia (as the case may be) and on a market operated outside Australia which stabilise or maintain the market price of the Notes of the relevant Series at a level which might not otherwise prevail for a limited period after the issue date and only if such transactions occur outside Australia and have no relevant jurisdictional connection to Australia. Such stabilising shall be in compliance with all relevant laws and regulations.

Priority of deposit liabilities and other amounts

UBS AG, Australia Branch is a foreign Authorised Deposit-Taking Institution ("foreign ADI") under the Banking Act 1959 (Cth), and is supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. UBSIA is not a foreign ADI under the Banking Act 1959 (Cth) and has minimal capital.

Notes are neither a deposit product nor any other form of deposit liability and, accordingly, are not covered by depositor protection provisions set out in Division 2 of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth).

In any event, provisions in the Banking Act 1959 (Cth) for the protection of depositors do not apply to foreign ADI including UBS AG, Australia Branch. For example, depositors with foreign ADIs do not receive the benefit of the following protections:

- Deposits are not covered by the financial claims scheme and are not guaranteed by the Australian Government.
- Deposits do not receive priority ahead of amounts owed to other creditors. This means that if a foreign ADI was unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment, its depositors in Australia would not receive priority for repayments of their deposits from the foreign ADI's assets in Australia.
- A foreign ADI is not required to hold assets in Australia to cover its deposit liabilities in Australia. This means that if the foreign ADI was unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment it is uncertain whether depositors would be able to access the full amount of their deposit.

Section 2 – Selling Restrictions

Subject to the terms and on the conditions contained in the Program, the Notes may be offered by the Issuer to the Dealers.

The Issuer is entitled under the Program to appoint one or more Dealers as a dealer for a particular issue of Notes and may act as a Dealer itself. The Notes may be resold by the relevant Dealer. The Notes may also be sold by the Issuer through the Dealers, acting as agents of the Issuer. The offer or resale by a Dealer is subject to the terms and conditions of any applicable agreement between the Issuer and the Dealer.

General

Each Dealer has represented and agreed that it will observe all applicable laws and regulations in any jurisdiction in which it may offer, sell or deliver Notes and that it will not directly or indirectly offer, sell, resell, reoffer or deliver Notes or distribute or publish the Information Memorandum, any prospectus, circular, advertisement or other offering material (including, without limitation, any supplement to the Information Memorandum) in relation to the Notes in or from any country or jurisdiction except under circumstances that will to the best of its knowledge and belief result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations, and all offers, sales and deliveries of Notes by it will be made on the foregoing terms.

No action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction that would permit a public offering of Notes, or possession or distribution of the Information Memorandum or other offering material, in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required.

Unless expressly permitted in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes may not be offered, sold or transferred in any jurisdiction other than Australia.

Persons into whose hands the Information Memorandum comes are required by the Issuer and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in which they purchase, offer, sell, resell, reoffer or deliver Notes or have in their possession or distribute such offering material and to obtain any consent, approval or permission required by them for the purchase, offer, sale or delivery by them of any Notes under the law and regulations in force in any jurisdiction to which they are subject or in which they make such purchases, offers, sales, reoffers, resales or deliveries, in all cases at their own expense, and neither the Issuer, nor any Dealer, shall have responsibility for such matters. In accordance with the above, any Notes purchased by any person which it wishes to offer for sale or resale may not be offered in any jurisdiction in circumstances which would result in the Issuer being obliged to register any further prospectus or corresponding document relating to the Notes in such jurisdiction.

In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of the Information Memorandum and the offer and sale of Notes in Australia and the United States of America as set out below.

Australia

No prospectus or other disclosure document (as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 of Australia) (“Corporations Act”) in relation to the Program or Notes has been (or will be) lodged with Australian Securities and Investments Commission (“ASIC”).

Section 708(19) of the Corporations Act provides that an offer of debentures for issue or sale does not need disclosure to investors in accordance with Part 6D.2 of the Corporations Act if the Issuer is an authorised deposit-taking institution (“ADI”) (as defined for the purposes of the Corporations Act). As at the date of this Part 1 IM, UBS AG, Australian Branch is a foreign ADI for the purposes of the Corporations Act.

Unless otherwise specified in any relevant Pricing Supplement, each Dealer has acknowledged that in relation to the relevant issue that:

- (a) no prospectus or other disclosure document (as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 of Australia) (“Corporations Act”) in relation to Notes or any Transaction Document has been lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission or any other Government Agency; and

- (b) no action has been taken or will be taken in any jurisdiction which would permit a public offering of the Notes or possession or distribution of the Information Memorandum or any other offering material in relation to Notes, in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required.

Each Dealer has agreed to observe all applicable laws and regulations in any jurisdiction in which it may offer, sell or deliver Notes.

Each Dealer has also agreed that it will not directly or indirectly offer, sell or deliver Notes or distribute any prospectus, circular, advertisement or other offering material relating to the Notes in any jurisdiction except in accordance with the terms and conditions of, and subject to, the agreement with the Issuers and under circumstances that will result in compliance by the Dealer with the applicable laws and regulations of that jurisdiction including, without limitation:

- (a) the selling restrictions set out in the Information Memorandum;
- (b) any additional selling restrictions that the Issuer and the Dealer agree and which are set out in the Information Memorandum or any relevant Pricing Supplement; and
- (c) unless expressly permitted in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes may not be offered, sold or transferred in any jurisdiction other than Australia.

In connection with each issue of Notes (other than any issue which is specified in any relevant Pricing Supplement as not intended to be Public Offer Test Compliant), each Dealer has agreed that unless the program in respect of the Notes was quoted on an electronic source or made pursuant to the Information Memorandum, each Dealer will, for the purpose of placing the Notes within 30 days of issue:

- (a) offer, pursuant to an electronic source or, following the Information Memorandum being made publicly available in the relevant market, all those Notes issued to it; or
- (b) offer all those Notes issued to it to at least 10 persons each carrying on a business of providing finance, or investing or dealing in debentures, in the course of operating in financial markets and not known or reasonably suspected by the relevant employee of the Dealer making the offer, effecting the sale or otherwise directly involved in the sale, to be an Associate of any other person covered by this paragraph; or
- (c) offer all those Notes issued to it to at least 100 persons whom it is reasonable for the Dealer to regard as having acquired debentures in the past or being likely to be interested in acquiring debentures.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed that, in connection with the primary distribution of each issue of Notes (other than any issue which is specified in any relevant Pricing Supplement as not intended to be Public Offer Test Compliant), it will not (directly or indirectly) sell Notes to any person who is actually known by the officers of the Dealer responsible for trading of Notes to be an Associate (as defined in section 128F(9) of the Australian Tax Act) of the Issuer or to any person who is notified by the Issuer to it in writing at the time of issue of those Notes as being an Associate of the Issuer (other than an Associate of the Issuer acting in the capacity of a dealer, manager or underwriter in relation to the placement of those Notes). Each Dealer may (directly or indirectly) sell Notes to:

- (a) an Associate of the Issuer who is not referred to in section 128F(5)(b) of the Tax Act; or
- (b) an Associate of the Issuer who is referred to in section 128F(5)(b) of the Tax Act, but who is acting in a capacity referred to in section 128F(5)(c) of the Tax Act.

The United States of America

Unless otherwise specified, terms used in this section titled "The United States of America" have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act 1933, as amended.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("U.S. Securities Act") and may not be offered, sold, delivered or transferred within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with certain transactions exempt, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed that, except as permitted by the Program, it has not offered, sold or delivered, and it will not offer, sell or deliver, the Notes:

- (a) as part of their distribution at any time; and
- (b) otherwise until 40 days after completion of the distribution, as determined and certified by the relevant Dealer or, in the case of an issue of debt instruments on a syndicated basis, the lead manager, within the United States of America or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons.

Each Dealer has also represented and agreed that, at or prior to confirmation of sale of Notes, it will have sent to each distributor, dealer or person receiving a selling commission, fee or other remuneration that purchases Notes from it a confirmation or notice to substantially the following effect:

"The Notes covered hereby have not been registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used above have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act."

Until 40 days after the completion of the distribution of all Notes of the Tranche of which those Notes are a part, an offer or sale of Notes within the United States of America by any Dealer or other distributor (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an applicable exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act.

Unless otherwise specified, terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

The tax treatment of the Notes is uncertain. Therefore, if you are a US taxpayer that is not a U.S. person (as defined under Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act 1933, as amended) you are urged to consult with your own tax advisors to determine the appropriate characterization of the Notes for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Please contact UBS for any additional information that you may require in making your determination.

Jurisdictions outside of Australia and the United States

The offer, sale and delivery of the Notes and the distribution of the Information Memorandum and other material in relation to any of the Notes will be strictly subject to such restrictions as may apply in any country in connection with the offering and sale of any Notes.

Additional applicable selling restrictions may be specified in a Pricing Supplement for any offer, sale or delivery of Notes in any other jurisdiction.

As noted above, unless expressly permitted in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes may not be offered, sold or transferred in any jurisdiction other than Australia.

Further restrictions

If as a result of a change in or the making of any law, treaty or official directive or request (whether or not having the force of law, but, if not having the force of law, compliance with which is in accordance with the practice of responsible financial institutions in the country concerned) the Issuer reasonably determines that the selling restrictions set out above require amendment or variation to ensure compliance with such law, treaty or official directive or request, the Issuer may by 30 days notice to each Dealer notify new selling restrictions which shall take effect as if set out in this schedule from the date specified in such notice.

Section 3 – Documents incorporated by reference

The Information Memorandum is to be read in conjunction with all documents which are deemed to be incorporated into it by reference as set out below. This Information Memorandum shall, unless otherwise expressly stated, be read and construed on the basis that such documents are so incorporated and form part of the Information Memorandum. References to “Information Memorandum” include any other document incorporated by reference.

The following documents are incorporated in, and taken to form part of, the Information Memorandum:

- (a) the most recent of UBS AG’s Annual Report (available at www.ubs.com)
- (b) all amendments and supplements to the Information Memorandum prepared by the Issuer from time to time; and
- (c) all documents issued by the Issuer and stated to be incorporated in the Information Memorandum by reference including, in the case of any Series of Notes, a Pricing Supplement.

Any statement contained in the Information Memorandum shall be modified or superseded in the Information Memorandum to the extent that a statement contained in any document subsequently incorporated by reference modifies or supersedes such statement (including whether expressly or by implication).

Except as provided above, no other information, including information on the internet sites of the Issuer or in any document incorporated by reference in any of the documents described above, is incorporated by reference into the Information Memorandum.

Copies of documents incorporated by reference in the Information Memorandum may be obtained from the Issuer on request.

Section 4 – Summary of the Program

The following is a brief summary only and should be read in conjunction with the rest of the Information Memorandum and, in relation to any Notes, with the applicable Terms including any relevant Pricing Supplement. A term used below but not otherwise defined has the meaning given to it in the Product Conditions. A reference to a "Pricing Supplement" does not limit the provisions or features of this Program which may be supplemented, amended, modified or replaced by a Pricing Supplement in relation to a particular Series of Notes.

Issuer: The entity specified as the issuer in the relevant Pricing Supplement, being either:

- UBS Investments Australia Pty Ltd (ABN 79 002 585 677) ("UBSIA"); or
- UBS AG, acting through its Australia Branch (ABN 47 088 129 613, AFSL 231087) or such other of its branches outside Switzerland.

Where UBSIA is the Issuer, "Guarantee" means the guarantee deed poll granted by UBS AG, Zurich on 4 January 2011 in favour of investors in Notes issued by UBSIA, which terms are summarised in Section 5 of this Part 1 IM, and "Guarantor" means UBS AG, Zurich.

In respect of any issue of Notes under the Program, the Issuer is the entity (or branch of the entity) which is a party to a Subscription Agreement and has signed a Pricing Supplement in respect of those Notes.

Program: A non-underwritten debt issuance program under which, subject to applicable laws, regulations and directives, the Issuer may elect to issue notes (collectively, "Notes") in registered form.

Subject to all applicable laws, regulations and directives, the Issuer may issue Notes in Australia but not in the United States unless such Notes are registered under the U.S. Securities Act or an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act is available.

The subscription for Notes is a loan to the Issuer which is repaid or otherwise discharged in accordance with the Terms of the Note. The Holder will be taken to have lent the Notional Amount per Note to the Issuer, notwithstanding the Issue Price of the Notes may be more or less than the Notional Amount.

Program Amount: A$10,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies). The Program Amount may be increased by the Issuer from time to time.

Program Term: The term of the Program continues until terminated by the Issuers together giving 30 days notice to the Dealers then appointed to the Program generally or earlier by agreement between all parties to the Dealer Agreement.

Program arranger: The Issuer may appoint a Program arranger for the offer of a particular Series of Notes.

Dealers: UBS AG, Australia Branch (ABN 47 088 129 613)
UBS Investments Australia Pty Ltd (ABN 79 002 585 677)

Additional Dealers may be appointed by the Issuer from time to time for a specific Series of Notes or to the Program generally.

Registrar and authentication agent:	The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited and/ or such other person appointed by the Issuer to undertake authentication duties with respect to Global Certificates, perform registry functions and establish and maintain a Register (as defined below) in or outside Australia on the Issuer's behalf from time to time ("Registrar"). Details of additional appointments in respect of a Series will be notified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Issuing and Paying Agent:	UBS AG, Australia Branch
Calculation Agent:	If a Calculation Agent is required for the purpose of calculating any amount or making any determination under a Note, such appointment will be notified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. The Issuer may terminate the appointment of the Calculation Agent, appoint additional or other Calculation Agents or act as Calculation Agent itself.
Agents:	Each Registrar, Issuing and Paying Agent, Calculation Agent and any other person appointed by the Issuer to perform other agency functions with respect to any Series of Notes (details of such appointment may be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement).
Form of Notes:	The Notes will be issued in registered form and, except as otherwise set out in any relevant Pricing Supplement, will be debt obligations of the Issuer issued as debentures and constituted by, and owing under, the Note Deed Poll dated 24 April 2019, as amended or supplemented from time to time. Notes take the form of entries in a register ("Register") maintained by the Registrar. Each Tranche of Notes will have issued in respect of it either a Global Certificate or an Individual Certificate, in each case as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. Each Global Certificate will be deposited on or around the relevant issue date with a depositary or a common depositary for the relevant Clearing System and registered in the name of a nominee for such depositary and will be exchangeable for Individual Certificates in accordance with its terms.
Status and Ranking:	Notes will be direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured debt obligations of the Issuer. UBS AG is a foreign ADI under the Banking Act 1959 (Cth), and is supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. Notes are not a deposit product or other deposit liability and are not covered by depositor protection provisions set out in Division 2 of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth). In any event, provisions in the Banking Act 1959 (Cth) for the protection of depositors do not apply to foreign ADIs including UBS AG. For example, depositors with foreign ADIs do not receive the benefit of the following protections: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deposits are not covered by the financial claims scheme and are not guaranteed by the Australian Government. • Deposits do not received priority ahead of amounts owed to other creditors. This means that if a foreign ADI was unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment, its depositors in Australia would not receive priority for repayments of their deposits from the foreign ADI's assets in Australia. • A foreign ADI is not required to hold assets in Australia to cover its deposit liabilities in Australia. This means that if the foreign ADI was unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment it is uncertain whether depositors would be able to access the full amount of their deposit.

UBSIA is an Australian private company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of UBS AG. UBS Group AG is the holding company of UBS AG and therefore the ultimate holding company of UBSIA. UBSIA has minimal capital and it is not an ADI under the Banking Act 1959 (Cth). The obligations of UBSIA are unsecured obligations which rank equally with all of its other unsecured obligations, and in a winding up of UBSIA Holders may not receive amounts owed under the Notes issued by UBSIA. However, UBSIA's obligations in respect of the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantor (UBS AG, Zurich) subject to certain qualifications. The Guarantee is more fully described in Section 5 of this Part 1 IM.

Ranking: Subject to all applicable laws and regulations, the payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes will at all times rank pari passu amongst themselves and with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, other than statutory preferred obligations.

Issuance in Series: The Notes will be issued in Series. Each Series may comprise one or more Tranches. The Notes of each Tranche of a Series are intended to be fungible with the other Tranches of Notes of that Series.

Issue Price: Notes may be issued at any price on a fully or partly paid basis, as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Currencies: Subject to all applicable laws and regulations, Notes will be denominated in Australian dollars or such other currencies as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Denominations: Subject to all applicable laws and regulations, Notes will be issued in such denominations as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Maturities: Subject to all applicable laws and regulations, Notes may have any maturity as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Redemption: Notes may be redeemed prior to scheduled maturity under certain circumstances as more fully set out in the Terms.

Notes entered in a Clearing System will be redeemed through that Clearing System in a manner that is consistent with the rules and regulations of that Clearing System.

Assuming there is no early maturity and Physical Delivery is not applicable, Notes will be redeemed by payment of the Maturity Redemption Amount at maturity and the payment of each Note's Maturity Redemption Amount will redeem the Note in full and discharge all of the Issuer's obligations in connection with the money lent to the Issuer on issuance of the Note. If Physical Delivery is applicable to a Series then the Issuer's obligation to pay the Maturity Redemption Amount will be satisfied by delivery of Entitlement Shares to the Holder.

Interest: Notes may or may not bear interest. Interest (if any) may be a fixed amount or amounts, may be calculated at a fixed or floating rate, may be linked to the performance of one or more Underlying Assets and in each case may vary during the lifetime of the relevant Series.

Periodic Coupons: Notes may or may not pay one or more periodic coupons. These amounts may be fixed or calculated by reference to the performance of an Underlying Asset or some other variable and in each case may vary during the lifetime of the relevant Series.

Certain types of Notes which may be issued under the Program:	Equity Linked Notes, Equity Index Linked Notes, Fund Linked Notes, FX Linked Notes, Credit Linked Notes and Other Notes which are linked to such other Underlying Asset(s) as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. Payments (whether in respect of principal, interest or otherwise and whether at maturity or otherwise) may be linked to a number of different Underlying Assets. Underlying Asset Conditions applicable to a Product are set out in the Part 2 IM for the relevant Product. Series specific information (including formulae) relating to valuation, adjustments, extraordinary events, payments and other matters affecting the Notes are set out in the Part 2 IM and the Pricing Supplement for those Notes.
Underlying Assets:	May include a share or security (including a preference share), an index (whether share index, commodity index, credit index, inflation index or otherwise), a fund, a commodity, a foreign exchange rate, credit risk of a reference entity, an interest rate, any other financial, economic or other measures or instruments including the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event or circumstances, baskets of any of the foregoing, a derivative contract in relation to any of the foregoing, any other combination of any of the foregoing.
Other Notes:	The Issuer may from time to time issue additional Part 2 IMs for Notes to be issued as a new Product type. The Issuer may also from time to time issue Notes in a form not specifically contemplated in this Part 1 IM. Terms applicable to any other type of Note that the Issuer and any relevant Dealer(s) or other investor(s) may agree to issue under the Program will be set out in the relevant Product Conditions and Pricing Supplement.
Clearing Systems:	Notes may be transacted either within or outside a Clearing System and the Clearing System may be inside or outside Australia as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. For example, the Issuer may apply to Clearstream Banking S.A. and Euroclear S.A./N.V. for approval for Notes to be traded on the clearing and settlement system operated by it. Approval by a Clearing System is not a recommendation or endorsement by the Clearing System of such Notes.
Title:	Entry of the name of the person in the Register in respect of a Note in registered form constitutes the obtaining or passing of title and is conclusive evidence that the person so entered is the registered holder of that Note subject to correction for fraud or error. Title to Notes which are held in a Clearing System will be determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of the relevant Clearing System. For example, Notes which are held in the Clearstream System will be registered in the name of the nominee for the common depository of Clearstream. Each Tranche of Notes will have issued in respect of it either a Global Certificate or an Individual Certificate, in each case as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. Each Global Certificate will be deposited on or around the relevant issue date with a depository or a common depository for the relevant Clearing System and registered in the name of a nominee for such depository and will be exchangeable for Individual Certificates in accordance with its terms.

Title to other Notes will depend on the form of those Notes as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Payments and Record Date:

Payments to persons who hold Notes through a Clearing System will be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the relevant Clearing System.

If any Notes are not lodged in a Clearing System, payments in respect of those Notes will be made to the account of the registered holder noted in the register as at 5:00pm (Sydney time) on the relevant Record Date. If no account is notified, then payments will be made by cheque mailed on the relevant payment date to the registered holder at its address appearing in the Register on the Record Date or in such other manner as the Issuer considers appropriate.

The Record Date is the date which is the close of business in the place where the Register is maintained on the Business Day immediately preceding the payment date or such other date specified in the Terms applicable to the Note.

Tax Consequences:

A brief overview of the Australian taxation treatment of payments of interest on Notes is set out in Section 7 of this Part 1 IM. It is a summary only and generic in nature and investors should obtain their own independent taxation advice regarding the taxation status of investing in any Notes. Further commentary on general taxation consequences of investing in a particular Product may be included in the Part 2 IM for that Product.

Listing:

It is not currently intended that Notes will be listed on any stock exchange. An application may be made for the Issuer to be admitted to the official list of, and/or Notes of a particular Series be quoted on, the Australian Securities Exchange operated by ASX Limited (ABN 98 008 624 691) ("ASX") or another stock exchange (in accordance with applicable laws and regulations).

Any Notes which are quoted on the ASX will not be transferred through, or registered on, the Clearing House Electronic Sub-Register System (CHES) operated by ASX Settlement Pty Limited (ABN 49 008 504 532) and will not be "Approved Financial Products" for the purposes of that system.

The applicable Pricing Supplement in respect of the issue of any Series or Tranche of Notes will specify whether or not such Notes will be quoted on the ASX or any other stock exchange.

Governing Law:

The Notes and all related documentation will be governed by the laws in force in New South Wales and the Commonwealth of Australia.

Selling Restrictions:

The offer, sale and delivery of Notes and the distribution of the Information Memorandum and other material in relation to any Notes are subject to such restrictions as may apply in any country in connection with the offer and sale of a particular Series of Notes.

In particular, restrictions on the offer, sale and delivery of Notes in Australia and the United States of America are set out in Section 2 – "Selling Restrictions".

Restrictions on the offer, sale and/or distribution of Notes may also be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Unless expressly permitted in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes may not be offered, sold or transferred in any jurisdiction other than Australia.

Transfer Procedure:

Notes may only be transferred in whole and not in part.

Unless otherwise specified in any relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes may only be transferred if:

- (a) in the case of Notes to be transferred in Australia:
 - (i) (A) the offer or invitation giving rise to the transfer is for an aggregate consideration of at least A$500,000 (or its equivalent in an alternative currency, and in either case, disregarding moneys lent by the transferor or its associates to the transferee), or (B) the offer or invitation for the transfer does not require disclosure to investors under Parts 6D.2 or 7.9 of the Corporations Act; and
 - (ii) any Notes issued by UBS AG are not offered, issued or resold to persons or non-incorporated entities for an aggregate amount payable of less than A$250,000 (or its foreign currency equivalent) in Australia; and
 - (iii) the transfer is not to a "retail client" as defined for the purpose of section 761G of the Corporations Act; and
- (b) at all times, the transfer complies with all applicable laws of the jurisdiction where the transfer takes place.

Transfers of Notes held in a Clearing System will be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the relevant Clearing System.

Restrictions on the transfer of Notes may also be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Unless expressly permitted in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes may not be offered, sold or transferred in any jurisdiction other than Australia.

Use of Proceeds:

The net proceeds of the issue of each Series of Notes will be used by the Issuer for its general corporate purposes.

Stamp Duty:

Any stamp duty incurred at the time of issue of Notes will be for the account of the Issuer. Any stamp duty incurred on a transfer of Notes will be for the account of the transferor or transferee (as determined amongst themselves).

As at the date of this Part 1 IM, no Australian stamp duty is payable on the issue, transfer or redemption of the Notes and no Swiss stamp duty is payable on the issue of the Notes. However, investors are advised to seek independent advice regarding any stamp duty or other taxes imposed by another jurisdiction upon the transfer of Notes, or interests in Notes, in any jurisdiction.

Any stamp duty incurred on delivery of Entitlement Shares to the Holder at maturity or redemption of the Notes will be for the account of the Holder.

Investor to obtain independent advice with respect to investment and other risks:

Section 6 of this Part 1 IM contains a description of general risk factors applicable to an investment in Notes. Further information on specific risk factors in relation to a Product may be included in the Part 2 IM for the Product. Those descriptions do not represent a full description of all of the risks arising from an investment in a Series of Notes. Prospective investors should consult their own professional, financial, legal and tax advisers about risks associated with an investment in a particular Series of Notes and the suitability of investing in the Notes in light of their particular circumstances.

Section 5 – Description of the Issuers, Arranger, Guarantor and the Guarantee

The information set out below is intended to be a brief summary only of UBS AG and UBS Investments Australia Pty Limited (as Issuers), UBS Securities Australia Limited (as Arranger) and UBS AG (as Guarantor). Investors must make their own assessment of the ability of the Issuer and the Guarantor (if applicable) to meet their obligations in relation to the Notes. Nothing in this Information Memorandum is or may be relied upon as a representation as to any future event or a promise as to the future.

UBS AG (an Issuer)

UBS AG is a Swiss bank and the parent company of the UBS AG Group. It is 100% owned by UBS Group AG, which is the holding company of the UBS Group. UBS operates as a group with four business divisions and a Corporate Center.

UBS AG with its subsidiaries (together, "UBS AG Group"; together with UBS Group AG, which is the holding company of UBS AG, and its subsidiaries, "UBS Group", "Group" or "UBS") provides financial advice and solutions to private, institutional and corporate clients worldwide, as well as private clients in Switzerland. The operational structure of the Group is comprised of the Corporate Center and the business divisions Global Wealth Management, Personal & Corporate Banking, Asset Management and the Investment Bank. UBS's strategy is centered on its leading Global Wealth Management business and its premier universal bank in Switzerland, which are enhanced by Asset Management and the Investment Bank. UBS focuses on businesses that, in its opinion, have a strong competitive position in their targeted markets, are capital efficient, and have an attractive long-term structural growth or profitability outlook.

UBS AG is incorporated and domiciled in Switzerland and operates under the Swiss Code of Obligations as an Aktiengesellschaft, a corporation limited by shares.

The addresses and telephone numbers of UBS AG's two registered offices and principal places of business are:

- Bahnhofstrasse 45, CH-8001 Zurich, Switzerland, telephone +41 44 234 1111; and
- Aeschenvorstadt 1, CH-4051 Basel, Switzerland, telephone +41 61 288 5050.

The Issuers will provide a copy, free of charge, of any of the following documents to any person who requests such copies during the life of this Information Memorandum, by contacting UBS on 1800 633 100:

- the latest available annual financial report of UBS AG; and
- the latest available quarterly financial report of UBS AG.

UBS AG's latest available annual and quarterly financial reports can also be downloaded from <http://www.ubs.com/1/e/investors.html>.

Additional information and details of the management and supervisory bodies of UBS can be obtained at www.ubs.com/investors.

Any statements regarding the competitive position of UBS AG, UBS AG Group or the Group contained in this document are made on the basis of the opinion of UBS AG or the Group.

In Australia, UBS AG is a foreign Authorised Deposit-Taking Institution ("foreign ADI") under the Banking Act 1959 (Cth), and is supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. A Note is not a deposit product or other deposit liability and is not covered by the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959 (Cth).

In any event, provisions in the Banking Act 1959 (Cth) for the protection of depositors do not apply to foreign ADIs including UBS AG. For example, depositors with foreign ADIs do not receive the benefit of the following protections:

- Deposits are not covered by the financial claims scheme and are not guaranteed by the Australian Government.

- Deposits do not receive priority ahead of amounts owed to other creditors. This means that if a foreign ADI was unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment, its depositors in Australia would not receive priority for repayment of their deposits from the foreign ADI's assets in Australia.
- A foreign ADI is not required to hold assets in Australia to cover its deposit liabilities in Australia. This means that if the foreign ADI was unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment it is uncertain whether depositors would be able to access the full amount of their deposit.

Investors are encouraged to take this information into account when making a decision to invest in any Notes.

UBS AG holds an Australian financial services licence (AFSL number 231087). UBS AG's address in Australia is:

Level 16, Chifley Tower
2 Chifley Square
Sydney NSW 2000
Australia

UBS Investments Australia Pty Limited (an Issuer)

UBS Investments Australia Pty Limited ("UBSIA") is an Australian private company and a wholly owned subsidiary of UBS AG. UBS Group AG is the holding company of UBS AG and therefore the ultimate holding company of UBSIA. UBSIA has minimal capital and it is not an ADI under the Banking Act 1959 (Cth). The obligations of UBSIA are unsecured obligations which rank equally with all of its other unsecured obligations, and in a winding up of UBSIA you may not receive amounts owed in respect of Notes issued by it. However, UBSIA's obligations in respect of the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantor (UBS AG, Zurich) subject to certain qualifications. The Guarantee is more fully described in Section 5 of this Part 1 IM.

UBS Investment Australia Pty Ltd's address is:

Level 16, Chifley Tower
2 Chifley Square
Sydney NSW 2000
Australia

UBS Securities Australia Limited (Arranger for UBS Investments Australia Pty Ltd)

UBSIA does not have an Australian Financial Services Licence. The issue of the Information Memorandum by UBSIA in Australia is arranged by UBS Securities Australia Limited ("Arranger" or "UBSSA") (ABN 62 008 586 481; AFSL 231098) pursuant to an intermediary authorisation for the purposes of section 911A(2)(b) of the Corporations Act. Pursuant to that section, for a Series of Notes issued by UBSIA, UBSIA will issue the Notes in accordance with the offer made by the Arranger to arrange for such issue of Notes.

The Arranger is an Australian unlisted public company, a wholly owned but non-guaranteed subsidiary of UBS AG, and is ultimately owned by UBS Group AG. The Arranger is an Australian Financial Services Licensee under the Corporations Act 2001, a Market Participant of ASX and Chi-X, a participant of ASX Clear (the clearing facility for ASX and Chi-X), and an ASX Settlement Participant (the settlement facility for equity and equity-related securities in Australia).

UBS AG (Guarantor)

UBS AG, Zurich has granted a Guarantee in respect of certain obligations of UBSIA as issuer of Notes. Information on UBS AG is found under the heading "UBS AG (an Issuer)" in this Section 5.

Description of Guarantee provided by UBS AG, Zurich

What is the Guarantee and what does it cover?

UBS AG, Zurich (the "Guarantor") has provided a Guarantee in favour of each Holder of Notes issued by UBSIA (other than another UBS entity) except where:

- (i) the Guarantor provides notice to UBSIA and UBSIA, as agent for the Guarantor, advises the person to whom the obligations will be owed that the Guarantee will not apply and the notice is provided before the obligation is incurred; or
- (ii) it relates to an obligation incurred by UBSIA on or after the date on which the Guarantor directly or indirectly ceased to beneficially own all of the shares of UBSIA.

As at the date of this Part 1 IM, the Guarantor has not provided notice to UBSIA under (i) above, and the Guarantor continues to beneficially own all of the shares of UBSIA. If UBSIA receives notice from the Guarantor that the Guarantee will not apply to any further Notes to be issued under this Information Memorandum, or if the Guarantor ceases to own all of the shares of UBSIA, then UBSIA will notify the Holder and withdraw the offer of Notes.

If such events do not occur before the Notes in a Series are issued, the Guarantee will cover the obligations of UBSIA to the Holder under the Terms.

Under the terms of the Guarantee, if UBSIA fails to meet a guaranteed obligation, such as an obligation to make a payment or deliver assets, then the Guarantor will pay the amount or make the delivery on demand by the Holder.

It is important to note that the Guarantee operates in respect of UBSIA's payment and delivery obligations in respect of the Notes, but it is not a guarantee of the performance of any Series of Notes or the performance of the underlying asset(s) of a Series.

How does a Holder make a claim under the Guarantee?

A Holder may make a claim under the Guarantee if UBSIA fails to meet a guaranteed obligation as described above. For example, this may occur if UBSIA fails to make a payment in accordance with the Terms, or fails to deliver any assets in accordance with the Terms. To make a claim, the Holder must provide notice of the claim in writing to UBS AG, Australia Branch (at the address set out below), which will act as the Guarantor's agent. If a Holder holds the Notes via a nominee, custodian or third party then the Holder may have to direct its nominee or custodian to make the claim against the Guarantor on its behalf, depending on the terms of the agreement between the Holder and its nominee, custodian or third party. The notice must:

- (i) include the Holder's full name and contact details;
- (ii) indicate that the Holder is making a claim under the Guarantee;
- (iii) indicate that the claim is made in respect of the Holder's holding in Notes issued under the terms of this Information Memorandum and relevant Pricing Supplement, the description of the Series of Notes held, and the number of Notes in that Series held by the Holder;
- (iv) provide all information relevant to the claim, including:
 - the obligation or obligations which UBSIA has failed to satisfy;
 - the due date for the obligation or obligations the subject of the claim; and
 - the monetary amount or particular assets the subject of the claim.

The Holder must also provide any information reasonably required by the Guarantor in order to assess and settle the claim.

Notices to UBS AG, Zurich in relation to the Guarantee must be sent to:

General Counsel
c/o UBS AG, Australia Branch
Level 16, Chifley Tower,
2 Chifley Square
Sydney, NSW 2000 Australia

or such other address as notified by UBSIA or the Guarantor from time to time.

For valid claims, the Guarantor will then make a payment under the Guarantee either by mailing a cheque to the Holder to their address as notified to UBSIA, or paying the money into the account according to the details notified by the Holder to UBSIA. For a delivery of assets the Guarantor will make the delivery in the same manner as was originally required of UBSIA. Once the payment or delivery is made, this shall discharge absolutely the obligation of the Guarantor to make that payment or delivery to the Holder (and any investor on whose behalf the Holder holds Notes) and the Holder and investor will have no further recourse to UBSIA or the Guarantor for such payment or delivery.

Other information

The Guarantee is unconditional and irrevocable and the obligations of the Guarantor under the Guarantee (subject to applicable laws and equitable principles affecting creditors' rights generally) will at all times rank at least equally with all its unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness and monetary obligations, present and future.

The Guarantor is an overseas entity and no assurance can be given in relation to the enforceability in an overseas jurisdiction of any Australian judgment obtained in relation to any default by them. However, the Guarantee is governed by NSW law and the Guarantor submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the NSW courts in respect of the Guarantee.

The Guarantee is not supported by a charge or other form of security over the assets of the Guarantor. The Guarantee represents general and unsecured contractual obligations of the Guarantor and will rank equally with all of its other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness and monetary obligations and in a winding up of the Guarantor you may not receive these amounts.

Investors can obtain a copy of the Guarantee free of charge by contacting UBSIA on 1800 633 100.

Section 6 – General Risk Factors

This section describes the general risks of investing in Notes. Key risks which are relevant to a specific Product are described in the Part 2 IM for the Product. Additional risks may also be disclosed in the Pricing Supplement for a Series. The risk disclosure in the Information Memorandum and the Pricing Supplement does not cover all risks and does not take into account the specific circumstances of an investor. Prospective investors should seek independent advice on the financial, legal, taxation and other consequences of an investment in Notes which takes into account their circumstances, needs and objectives.

No principal protection

Notes are not deposits with the Issuer and should not be treated as a substitute for a deposit. Notes are not covered by depositor protection provisions set out in Division 2 of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth).

There is no guarantee that investors will be able to liquidate their Notes at an amount that is at least equal to the original amount that they invested.

One or more of the Maturity Redemption Amount, Periodic Coupons, Maturity Coupon and other amounts payable under the Note may be linked to the performance of an Underlying Asset, e.g. shares in a company. The value of the Notes will therefore fluctuate with changes in the value of the Underlying Asset. Even where the Maturity Redemption Amount is expressed to be or could potentially be 100% of the Principal Amount of the Note, there is no guarantee that the value of the Note will be at least 100% of the Principal Amount prior to maturity and may in fact be significantly less.

Different Products and different Series of Notes have different (and potentially significantly different) Terms. Key risks which are specific to a Product or a Series will be disclosed in the relevant Part 2 IM or Pricing Supplement.

Changes in Note value may be rapid and unpredictable

The value of Notes will fluctuate over time. Whilst the Note value is linked to one or more Underlying Assets and will be influenced (positively or negatively) by such underlying asset(s) any change may not be comparable and may be disproportionate. For example, depending on the specific Terms, investors may be exposed to the risk of a fall in the Underlying Asset price but have their exposure to any positive performance of the Underlying Asset capped at a certain level. In other cases, Notes may provide a leveraged exposure to upside and/or downside performance of the Underlying Asset(s), or an increase in the Underlying Asset value may result in a decrease in the Note value.

Investing in Notes is not the same as investing in the Underlying Asset(s) – for example, an investor will not have any ownership rights in the Underlying Asset(s) and the price of the Note may be more volatile or less volatile than the price of the Underlying Asset(s). Since there is a defined maturity date for a Note, the investor must generally be correct about the direction, timing and magnitude of changes in the Underlying Asset(s) performance in order to derive a gain from an investment in Notes. Depending on the specific Terms, the value of a Note can fall to a de minimus amount (e.g. $0.01 per Note), thus resulting in a loss of practically the entire amount invested.

The Issuers expect to issue multiple Series of Notes with different Terms. Some Notes may appear similar, especially Notes of the same Product type (which are subject to the same Product Conditions) but the Note may be supplemented and varied by the Pricing Supplement so investors must refer to the Product Conditions and the specific Pricing Supplement for a Series before making an investment in the Series.

Notes issued under the Information Memorandum are structured investments so changes in the price or level of the Underlying Assets may not lead to a corresponding change in the value of the Notes of the same magnitude or even any change at all. The value of a Note may be impacted by multiple factors, for example:

- performance of the Underlying Asset(s);
- correlation between the performance of Underlying Assets;
- volatility of prices of the Underlying Asset(s);
- changes in interest rates and exchange rates;
- distribution yield from Underlying Asset(s);
- time remaining to the maturity of the Notes;

- creditworthiness of the Issuer and the Guarantor, which can influence the Issuer's credit margin; or
- other factors which affect financial markets or the economy in general.

More than one risk factor may have simultaneous effects with regard to the Notes such that the effect of a particular risk factor may be unpredictable.

In addition, more than one risk factor may have a compounding effect which may be unpredictable. No assurance can be given as to the effect that any combination of risk factors may have on the value of the Notes.

Underlying Asset performance risk

Periodic returns and/or the Maturity Redemption Amount of Notes are linked to the performance of the Underlying Asset. It is impossible to predict whether the Underlying Asset value will rise or fall and past performance is not an indicator of future performance of the Underlying Asset(s) during the investment term of the Notes.

Underlying Asset values may be influenced by complex and interrelated financial, economic, political and other factors, including but not limited to:

- actual and expected profitability of the issuers of the Underlying Assets and their distribution payment policies;
- general movements in local and international security markets;
- changes in interest rates and exchange rates;
- changes in law affecting the Underlying Assets;
- where the Underlying Asset is a commodity or commodities index, the price of the commodity or prices of the commodities contracts and prices of physical commodities; or
- other factors which affect financial markets or the economy in general.

The Issuer does not guarantee the performance of the Underlying Asset or the Notes and nothing in the Information Memorandum is a recommendation by the Issuer concerning an investment in Notes or the Underlying Assets. Holders do not acquire any interest in or rights to the Underlying Assets by investing in Notes.

Liquidity risk

The Notes are not listed unless the Pricing Supplement for a Series specifically states that the Series of Notes will be listed. The Issuers expect the vast majority of Notes to be unlisted. Furthermore, the transfer of the Notes can only be made in accordance with the relevant transfer and selling restrictions set out in the Information Memorandum and the relevant Pricing Supplement which may further limit the liquidity of the Notes.

The Issuers and Dealers are not obliged to buy back Notes. As such, any secondary market in Notes made by the Dealer or any repurchase by the Issuer will be made on a reasonable efforts basis only and subject to market conditions, law, regulation and internal policy. Furthermore, any secondary market may not be liquid enough to support the sale by an investor of their particular holding, and a bid offer spread is expected to apply (that is, the price at which Notes can be sold will be lower than the price at which Notes can be purchased by investors at the same time).

If a secondary market does not exist then investors will have to hold the Notes to final maturity, potentially with no income in the interim if the Notes do not provide for any periodic returns prior to maturity. If a Note is sold in the secondary market, the price may be significantly less than the Principal Amount of the Note and will be net of any related costs and taxes. The secondary market price will also be dependent on the quantum of proceeds derived by the Issuer from unwinding its hedges for the Note, which will vary over time.

Credit risk exposure to Issuer and Guarantor

Investors are exposed to counterparty risk in relation to the Issuer which is a risk that the Issuer may default on its obligations under the Terms. The obligations of the Issuer are unsecured obligations which rank equally with all other unsecured obligations of the Issuer, and in a winding up of the Issuer, investors may not receive all the amounts owed to them.

Where the Issuer is UBS Investments Australia Pty Ltd ("UBSIA"), investors are also exposed to counterparty risk in relation to the Guarantor, being UBS AG. UBSIA only has nominal capital so in the event of a default by UBSIA investors may make a claim against the Guarantor. The Guarantee is not supported by a charge or other form of security over the assets of the Guarantor – it represents general and unsecured contractual obligations of the Guarantor and will rank equally with all of its other unsecured obligations. Investors should note that the Guarantor is an overseas entity and no assurance can be given in relation to the enforceability in an overseas jurisdiction of any Australian judgment obtained in relation to any default by the Guarantor. However, the Guarantee is governed by NSW law and the Guarantor submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the NSW courts in respect of the Guarantee.

You must make your own assessment of the ability of the Issuer and the Guarantor to meet their obligations and their general creditworthiness. You can assess the Issuer's and the Guarantor's ability to meet their counterparty obligations by reviewing their financial information. Please refer to the "Description of the Issuer, Arranger and the Guarantor" in Section 5 of this Part 1 IM for more detail and information about how to access the financial information of the Issuer and the Guarantor.

If UBS experiences financial difficulties, the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA) has the power to open restructuring or liquidation proceedings or impose protective measures in relation to UBS Group AG, UBS AG or UBS Switzerland AG, and such proceedings or measures may have a material adverse effect on UBS's shareholders and creditors

Under the Swiss Banking Act, FINMA is able to exercise broad statutory powers with respect to Swiss banks and Swiss parent companies of financial groups, such as UBS AG, UBS Group AG and UBS Switzerland AG, if there is justified concern that the entity is overindebted, has serious liquidity problems or, after the expiration of any relevant deadline, no longer fulfils capital adequacy requirements. Such powers include ordering protective measures, instituting restructuring proceedings (and exercising any Swiss resolution powers in connection therewith), and instituting liquidation proceedings, all of which may have a material adverse effect on shareholders and creditors or may prevent UBS Group AG, UBS AG or UBS Switzerland AG from paying dividends or making payments on debt obligations.

Protective measures may include, but are not limited to, certain measures that could require or result in a moratorium on, or the deferment of, payments (including payments relating to the Notes issued under this Program). UBS would have limited ability to challenge any such protective measures, and creditors would have no right under Swiss law or in Swiss courts to reject them, seek their suspension, or challenge their imposition, including measures that require or result in the deferment of payments.

If restructuring proceedings are opened with respect to UBS Group AG, UBS AG or UBS Switzerland AG, the resolution powers that FINMA may exercise include the power to (i) transfer all or some of the assets, debt and other liabilities, and contracts of the entity subject to proceedings to another entity, (ii) stay for a maximum of two business days the termination of, or the exercise of rights to terminate, netting rights, rights to enforce or dispose of certain types of collateral or rights to transfer claims, liabilities or certain collateral, under contracts to which the entity subject to proceedings is a party, and / or (iii) partially or fully write down the equity capital and, if such equity capital is fully written down, convert into equity or write down the capital and other debt instruments of the entity subject to proceedings. Shareholders and creditors would have no right to reject, or to seek the suspension of, any restructuring plan pursuant to which such resolution powers are exercised. They would have only limited rights to challenge any decision to exercise resolution powers or to have that decision reviewed by a judicial or administrative process or otherwise.

Upon full or partial write-down of the equity and of the debt of the entity subject to restructuring proceedings, the relevant shareholders and creditors would receive no payment in respect of the equity and debt that is written down, the write-down would be permanent, and the investors would not, at such time or at any time thereafter, receive any shares or other participation rights, or be entitled to any write-up or any other compensation in the event of a potential recovery of the debtor. If FINMA orders the conversion of debt of the entity subject to restructuring proceedings into equity, the securities received by the investors may be worth significantly less than the original debt and may have a significantly different risk profile, and such conversion would also dilute the ownership of existing shareholders. In addition, creditors receiving equity would be effectively subordinated to all creditors in the event of a subsequent winding up, liquidation or dissolution of the entity subject to restructuring proceedings, which would increase the risk that investors would lose all or some of their investment.

FINMA has broad powers and significant discretion in the exercise of its powers in connection with restructuring proceedings. Furthermore, certain categories of debt obligations, such as certain types of deposits, are subject to preferential treatment. As a result, holders of obligations of an entity subject to a Swiss restructuring proceeding may have their obligations written down or converted into equity even though obligations ranking on par with or junior to such obligations are not written down or converted.

Moreover, FINMA has expressed its preference for a "single-point-of-entry" resolution strategy for global systemically important financial groups, led by the bank's home supervisory and resolution authorities and focused on the top-level group company. This would mean that, if UBS AG or one of UBS Group AG's other subsidiaries faces substantial losses, FINMA could open restructuring proceedings with respect to UBS Group AG only and order a bail-in of its liabilities if there is a justified concern that in the near future such losses could impact UBS Group AG. In that case, it is possible that the obligations of UBS AG or any other subsidiary of UBS Group AG would remain unaffected and outstanding, while the equity capital and the capital and other debt instruments of UBS Group AG would be written down and / or converted into equity of UBS Group AG in order to recapitalise UBS AG or such other subsidiary.

Opportunity cost and time value of money

An investment in Notes may produce a return that is less than that offered by other investments of the same maturity. The actual return from Notes is variable and could be negative so there is a risk investors will lose all the money they have invested. In addition, it is likely that the return from Notes will not be the same as what an investor would earn if the investor had invested directly in the Underlying Asset(s).

When interest rates in the Specified Currency and inflation rate are positive, one unit of the Specified Currency received at a future date is worth less than one unit of Specified Currency received today because of the interest that an investor could have earned on investing the money between today and the future date. This is often referred to as the "time value of money" and should be taken into account when assessing an investment in Notes, especially Notes which do not pay any periodic returns prior to maturity and only pays a Maturity Coupon and/or Maturity Redemption Amount on a future date.

Calculation Agent's discretion

The Calculation Agent has a broad discretionary authority to make various determinations and adjustments under the Notes, any of which may have an adverse effect on the value and/or the amounts payable under the Notes. For example, upon occurrence of an event which has a diluting, concentrative or other effect on the actual or theoretical value of an Underlying Asset for a Note, the Calculation Agent may make adjustments to the Terms of the Notes as it determines appropriate (in its sole and absolute discretion) to account for that diluting or concentrative effect.

Prospective investors should be aware that any determinations made by the Calculation Agent may therefore have an impact on their financial return from Notes. Where the Calculation Agent is required to make a determination it will do so in good faith but it is not obliged to take into account the interests of the investors. It is possible for an adjustment to have an adverse effect on the value and liquidity of the affected Notes.

In the absence of manifest error, the Calculation Agent's determination is final, conclusive and binding on the Holders and the Issuer. None of the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or the Guarantor or any Agents (as applicable) shall have responsibility to Holders or any other person for good faith errors or omissions in the Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations, whether caused by negligence or otherwise, as provided in the Terms of the Notes. No person shall be entitled to make any claim against the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or the Guarantor (as applicable) for such good faith errors or omission.

Early redemption risk

In addition to Mandatory Redemption Events, the Issuer may exercise its discretion to redeem a Series of Notes early if certain other events occur, such as an Extraordinary Event, Potential Adjustment Event or if the Issuer would be required to make any withholding or deduction in respect of Taxes applicable to the Notes. In such cases, the Early Redemption Amount will be determined based on then prevailing market conditions and the value that the Issuer has derived or is able to derive from unwinding its Hedge Positions in respect of the Note. The Early Redemption Amount cannot be calculated with certainty until the redemption is implemented and may be less than 100% of the Principal Amount of the Note.

Possible conflict of interests

The Issuer and its affiliates may conduct transactions as principal or agent in various assets, indices and other investments including the Underlying Asset(s) to which the Notes are linked. These trading activities may affect (positively or negatively) the value or liquidity of the Underlying Asset(s) and may therefore affect the return from an investment in Notes.

Investors should ensure that they understand and accept the identities of the parties and the roles they play in relation to the Notes. For example, the Issuer, a Dealer and certain named Agents (e.g. the Calculation Agent and the Issuing and Paying Agent) may be the same or affiliated corporate entities, although performing different functions in respect of the issue of the Notes and the structure underlying them. In particular, in their respective roles, the Issuer or the various named Agents may retain various powers of discretion which may have a material impact on the value and performance of the Notes, for example, the ability to adjust the Terms of the Notes following a Potential Adjustment Event or the ability to declare an early redemption of the Notes as a result of an Extraordinary Event. Such discretions may create conflicts of interest due to the capacities in which the Issuer or the agents are acting and these discretions may be exercised (or not be exercised) in a way that could adversely affect the Holders.

Tax risk

If an amount is required by law to be withheld or deducted from a payment due to a Holder under a Note for or on account of any Taxes then the Issuer or any person with the authority or obligation to withhold Taxes in respect of that payment will either withhold the relevant amount before the remainder is paid to the Holder, or if payment is made without deduction or withholding then the Issuer is entitled to recover the amount withheld or deducted from the Holder as a full recourse debt and may be deducted from future payments due to the Holder. Unless specifically provided for in the Terms, there will be no gross up for any Taxes deducted so investors will derive a lower return from their Notes if withholding is applicable. For example, if the Issuer is required to withhold any amount pursuant to Australian interest withholding tax, FATCA or Section 871(m) of the U.S. Tax Code, the Issuer will not be required to pay additional amounts with respect to the amount so withheld.

Under the terms of the Notes, the Issuer is also entitled to early redeem the Notes if the Issuer is required to deduct or withhold any Taxes. In such circumstances, investors may receive an amount which is less than the Principal Amount of the Notes.

Foreign exchange risk

If the Specified Currency of the Note is different to the denomination of the Underlying Asset(s), or if Physical Delivery is applicable and the Delivery Shares are denominated in a currency different to the Specified Currency then the value of the Note and the financial return under the Notes may be subject to fluctuations of the exchange rate between the Specified Currency and the currency denomination of the Underlying Asset or Delivery Share. The relevant exchange rate may fluctuate as a result of market and political conditions and economic factors and may go up as well as down. There is no assurance that the level of the relevant exchange rate at any given time will be at a level which will result in a favourable financial return for the investor.

Consequences of the Notes being represented by Global Certificate

For so long as the Notes are represented by the Global Certificate, the Notes will be held and traded through the applicable Clearing System. For the purposes of payments and delivery of notices required to be made by the Issuer to a Holder of the Notes, such payments and notices will be given by delivery to the relevant Clearing System for communication and delivery by it to entitled accountholders, and therefore investors will have to rely on the relevant participant in the Clearing System and their custodian banks to credit his/her/its account with payments credited to it and/or to distribute the notices which it receives through the applicable Clearing System from the Issuer.

Limited Recourse

The Issuer's obligation to pay any amounts due hereunder shall be reduced and/or delayed accordingly if the Issuer (or its Affiliates), 1) fails to receive any amount/securities in full or 2) experiences a delay in the receipt of any amount/securities, in each case under the transactions entered into by the Issuer (or its Affiliates) for hedging the Notes.

Risks related to Notes which are linked to “benchmarks”

LIBOR discontinuation

Since April 2013, the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) has regulated the London Interbank Offered Rate (“LIBOR”), the “benchmark” to which certain payments on Notes issued under the Program may be linked. Efforts to transition from LIBOR to alternative benchmark rates are under way in several jurisdictions.

The FCA announced in July 2017 that it will not intervene beyond 2021 to sustain LIBOR and urged users to plan the transition to alternative reference rates. In April 2017, the Working Group on Sterling Risk-Free Reference Rates selected the Sterling Overnight Index Average as the recommended British pound risk-free rate. In the US, the Alternative Reference Rates Committee has recommended a broad Treasuries repo financing rate as the new US dollar secured risk-free rate. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York has launched a consultation on the construction of this and two other Treasury repurchase agreement-derived rates. The European Central Bank (“ECB”) has also recently announced its decision to develop, before 2020, a euro unsecured overnight interest rate based on transaction data already reported to the ECB by banks. As a result, there can be no guarantee that LIBOR will be determined after 2021 on the same basis at present, if at all. At this time, it is not possible to predict the effect of any such changes, any establishment of alternative reference rates or any other reforms to LIBOR that may be implemented in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

The Benchmark Regulation

Interest rates and indices which are deemed to be “benchmarks” are the subject of recent national and international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Notes linked to or referencing such a “benchmark”.

The Benchmark Regulation applies to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark within the European Union. It, among other things, (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if not based in the European Union, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevents certain uses by European Union supervised entities of “benchmarks” provided by administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if not based in the European Union, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The Benchmark Regulation could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a “benchmark”, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the “benchmark” are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the Benchmark Regulation. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the “benchmark”.

In addition, the occurrence of an Administrator/Benchmark Event (as defined in the Part 2 IM) may cause early redemption, cancellation or adjustment of the Notes. An Administrator/Benchmark Event may occur in any of the following circumstances: (i) if a benchmark is changed or cancelled, (ii) the relevant authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence or approval in respect of the benchmark or the administrator of the benchmark is not obtained, (iii) an application for authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision, approval or inclusion in any official register is rejected or (iv) any authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval is suspended or inclusion in any official register is withdrawn.

In the event that the Notes are early redeemed as a result of an Administrator/Benchmark Event, the proceeds of sale and/or the proceeds of termination of any Notes, as applicable, may not be sufficient to fund in full the amount payable in respect of each Note in connection with early redemption as a result of an Administrator/Benchmark Event, where such an amount is calculated in accordance with the Product Conditions, and investors may receive a return significantly less than their initial investment (or even zero).

More broadly, any of the international or national reforms, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of "benchmarks", could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a "benchmark" and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the following effects on certain "benchmarks": (i) discourage market participants (or prohibit a particular market participant) from continuing to administer or contribute to the "benchmark"; (ii) trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in the "benchmark" and/or (iii) lead to the disappearance of the "benchmark". Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international or national reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to or referencing a "benchmark" and the Issuer may be entitled to redeem the Notes prior to their scheduled maturity date or to require the Calculation Agent to make corresponding adjustments to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Section 7 – Taxation Summary

Australian Taxation

The following is a summary of the taxation treatment under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 ("ITAA 1936", "ITAA 1997", and together, "Australian Tax Act"), and any relevant regulations, rulings or judicial or administrative pronouncements, at the date of this Part 1 IM of certain payments and features of Notes issued under the Program. References to "Issuer" in the following sections are to UBS AG or UBS Investments Australia Pty Ltd, as applicable. References to "investors" are to persons who hold a beneficial interest in the Notes which are lodged in the Clearing System. Investors should consult their tax advisors in relation to the tax treatments of Notes issued by other UBS branches.

This summary does not constitute legal or taxation advice, is not exhaustive and does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax and stamp duty considerations relating to the Notes. Furthermore, the tax treatment of a particular Series of Notes may differ from the tax treatment of another Series of Notes, and most likely so if the Series are of a different Product type because the terms of issue are different. Prospective investors should consult their professional advisers on the tax implications of an investment in a Series of Notes in their particular circumstances.

The comments in this tax summary are made on the assumption that:

- (a) payments made by the Issuer to the Clearing System will be passed on by the clearing participants to the investors;
- (b) unless specified otherwise, the investor can be either a resident or non-resident but does not include an investor who carries on business at or through a permanent establishment outside their home countries;
- (c) the investor is not a dealer in securities, a custodian, or a person who holds Notes on behalf of other persons and did not acquire the Notes for the purpose of resale at a profit;
- (d) the investor does not have the intention to (when the Note is purchased), and will not, dispose of the Note prior to the Maturity Settlement Date; and
- (e) the investor acquires and holds the Note on capital account and does not hold the Note as trading stock.

Payments and deliveries under particular Series of Notes

Depending on the specific terms of a Series of Notes, certain payments or deliveries may be made to the investor, on a conditional or unconditional basis. Comments on the general Australian tax consequences of investing in Notes of a particular Product type are included in the Part 2 IM for that Product. Those comments do not constitute legal or taxation advice and are not exhaustive. Prospective investors should seek professional advice before making an investment in Notes, taking into account their particular circumstances.

The following are general comments which are expected to be relevant to most Series of Notes.

Interest withholding tax

- Nature of payment

The Australian Tax Act characterises securities as either "debt interests" (for all entities) or "equity interests" (for companies) including for the purposes of Australian interest withholding tax ("IWT") and dividend withholding tax. IWT is payable at a rate of 10% of the gross amount of interest paid by the Issuer (or the Guarantor, if relevant) to a non-resident of Australia (other than a non-resident acting at or through a permanent establishment in Australia) or a resident acting at or through a permanent establishment outside Australia unless an exemption is available. For these purposes, interest is defined in section 128A(1AB) of the Australian Tax Act to include amounts in the nature of, or in substitution for, interest and certain other amounts. As an example, Periodic Coupons and Maturity Coupons are expected to be characterised as interest or an amount in the nature of interest paid on a Note.

IWT may also be payable at the rate of 10 per cent on payments of interest paid on an overdue amount by the Issuer or Guarantor to non-Australian residents.

If Coupons and other payments in relation to a Series of Notes are not so characterised, further information on the material Australian tax consequences relating to those payments, including interest withholding tax, will be specified in the relevant Part 2 IM or Pricing Supplement (or another relevant supplement to the Information Memorandum).

- Exemption

An exemption from IWT is available in respect of interest paid on the Notes if the requirements of section 128F of the Australian Tax Act are satisfied.

The requirements under section 128F for an exemption from IWT in respect of the Notes are as follows:

- (a) where the Issuer is UBS AG, Australia Branch, the Issuer is a non-resident of Australia carrying on business at or through a permanent establishment in Australia when it issues the relevant Notes and when interest is paid, and where the Issuer is UBS Investments Australia Pty Ltd, the Issuer is a resident of Australia when it issues the relevant Notes and when interest is paid;
- (b) the Notes are issued in a manner which satisfies one of the public offer tests set out in section 128F(3);
- (c) the Issuer does not know, or have reasonable grounds to suspect, at the time of issue, that the Notes or an interest in the Notes was being, or would later be, acquired, directly or indirectly, by an "associate" of the Issuer, except as permitted by section 128F(5) of the Australian Tax Act; and
- (d) at the time of the payment of interest, the Issuer does not know, or have reasonable grounds to suspect, that the payee is an "associate" of the Issuer, except as permitted by section 128F(6) of the Australian Tax Act.

In summary, the issue of Notes satisfies the public offer test if the issue resulted from the Notes being offered for issue:

- to 10 or more unrelated financiers or securities dealers;
- to 100 or more investors;
- as a result of the Notes being accepted for listing on a stock exchange;
- as a result of negotiations commencing via publicly available information sources such as Bloomberg, Reuters or by circulating an Information Memorandum; or
- to a dealer, manager or underwriter who offers to sell such Notes within 30 days by one of the preceding methods.

- Compliance with section 128F of the Australian Tax Act

Unless otherwise specified in a relevant Pricing Supplement (or another relevant supplement to this Information Memorandum), the Issuer intends to issue the Notes in a manner which will satisfy the requirements of section 128F of the Australian Tax Act.

Other withholding taxes

Pursuant to section 12-140 of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 of Australia ("TAA"), TFN/ABN withholding tax is imposed on the payment of interest and other income to investors who are Australian residents unless the investor has quoted an Australian tax file number ("TFN") or an Australian Business Number ("ABN") (if applicable) or provided proof of some other exemption (as appropriate). The rate of TFN/ABN withholding tax is currently 47%. The Issuer is not under any obligation to gross up any payments under the Notes for TFN/ABN withholding tax applicable to an investor. Furthermore, if the full amount of the payment subject to TFN/ABN withholding has been paid to the investor then the Issuer is entitled to recover the TFN/ABN withholding amount from the investor as a full recourse debt.

Payments in respect of the Notes can be made free and clear of the "supply withholding tax" imposed pursuant to section 12-190 of Schedule 1 to the TAA.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA") was enacted on March 18, 2010, and imposes a 30% U.S. withholding tax on "withholdable payments" (i.e., certain U.S. -source payments, including interest (and original issue discount), dividends, other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gain, profits, and income, and on the gross proceeds from a disposition of property of a type which can produce U.S.-source interest or dividends) and "passthru payments" (i.e., certain payments attributable to withholdable payments) made to certain foreign financial institutions (and certain of their affiliates) unless the payee foreign financial institution agrees (or is required), among other things, to disclose the identity of any U.S. individual with an account of the institution (or the relevant affiliate) and to annually report certain information about such account. FATCA also requires withholding agents making withholdable payments to certain foreign entities that do not disclose the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of any substantial U.S. owners (or do not certify that they do not have any substantial U.S. owners) to withhold tax at a rate of 30%. Under certain circumstances, a holder may be eligible for refunds or credits of such taxes.

Pursuant to final and temporary Treasury regulations and other IRS guidance published after the date FATCA was originally enacted, the withholding and reporting requirements under FATCA will generally apply to certain "withholdable payments", will not apply to gross proceeds on a sale or disposition, and will apply to certain foreign passthru payments only to the extent that such payments are made after the date that is two years after final regulations defining the term "foreign passthru payment" are published. If withholding is required, we (or the applicable paying agent) will not be required to pay additional amounts with respect to the amounts so withheld. Foreign financial institutions and non-financial foreign entities located in jurisdictions that have an intergovernmental agreement with the U.S. governing FATCA may be subject to different rules.

Investors should consult their tax advisors about the application of FATCA, in particular if they may be classified as financial institutions (or if they hold their Securities through a foreign entity) under the FATCA rules.

Withholding related to Section 871(m) of the U.S. Tax Code

A 30% withholding tax is imposed on certain "dividend equivalents" paid or deemed paid to a Non-U.S. Holder with respect to a "specified equity-linked instrument" that references one or more dividend-paying U.S. equity securities. The withholding tax can apply even if the instrument does not provide for payments that reference dividends. Treasury regulations provide that the withholding tax applies to all dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on specified equity-linked instruments that have a delta of one ("delta one specified equity-linked instruments") issued after 2016 and to all dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on all other specified equity-linked instruments issued after 2020.

The Issuer will determine whether dividend equivalents on the Notes are subject to withholding as of the close of the relevant market(s) on the pricing date and the relevant Pricing Supplement will indicate whether the Notes are specified equity-linked instruments that are subject to withholding on dividend equivalents. If withholding is required, the Issuer (or the applicable paying agent) will withhold 30% in respect of dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on the Notes and will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such taxes withheld. The Issuer will withhold this amount regardless of whether an investor is a United States Person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or a non-United States Person that may otherwise be entitled to an exemption of reduction of tax on U.S. source dividend payments pursuant to an income tax treaty.

Even if the Issuer determines that the Notes are not specified equity-linked instruments that are subject to withholding on dividend equivalents, it is possible that the Notes could be deemed to be reissued for tax purposes upon the occurrence of certain events affecting the Underlying Assets or the Notes, and following such occurrence the Notes could be treated as specified equity-linked instruments that are subject to withholding on dividend equivalent payments. It is also possible that withholding tax or other Section 871(m) tax could apply to the Notes under these rules if a Non-U.S. Holder enters, or has entered, into certain other transactions in respect of the Underlying Assets. As describe above, if withholding is required, the Issuer will withhold 30% in respect of dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on the Notes and will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such taxes withheld.

Additionally, in the event that withholding is required, the Issuer hereby notifies each investor that for purposes of Section 871(m), that we will withhold in respect of dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on the Notes on the dividend payment date as described in Treasury regulations section 1.1441-2(e)(4) and section 3.03(B) of the form of Qualified Intermediary Agreement contained in Revenue Procedure 2017-15, as applicable, regardless of whether such investor would otherwise be entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding on such payments (e.g., a United States Person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or a non-United States person eligible for an exemption from or reduction in withholding pursuant to an income tax treaty). No assurance can be given that an investor will be able to successfully claim a refund of the tax withheld in excess of the tax rate that would otherwise apply to such payments.

Investors acknowledge that in the event the Note references an index, then regardless of whether the index is a net price return, a price return or a total return index, the payments made under the Note (including any amounts deemed reinvested in the calculation of the index or in the Note) will reflect the gross dividend payments paid by the issuers of the securities comprising the index less applicable withholding tax amounts in respect of such gross dividends, which in the case of U.S. source dividends, will be paid by or on behalf of UBS or its affiliate, in its capacity as a withholding agent, to the Internal Revenue Service in accordance with the US withholding tax rules under section 871(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Investors should consult with their tax advisors regarding the application of Section 871(m) and the regulations thereunder in respect of their acquisition and ownership of the Notes, including a Non-U.S. Holder that enters, or has entered, into other transactions in respect of the Underlying Assets.

No gross up

Holders who are Australian residents for tax purposes should be aware that if they do not provide either their Tax File Number or Australian Business Number or proof of an exemption, the Issuer or an Australian intermediary (e.g. a custodian) who holds the Notes on their behalf will be required to deduct tax at the highest marginal tax rate (plus Medicare levy) on any interest income derived by the Holder.

If an amount is required by law to be withheld or deducted from a payment under a Note for or on account of any Taxes then the Issuer or any person with the authority or obligation to withhold Taxes will either withhold the relevant amount before the remainder is paid to the investor, or if an amount has been paid to the investor without withholding or deduction then the Issuer is entitled to recover from the investor as a full recourse debt the amount that has been or is required to be remitted to the taxing authority and the investor must pay that amount to the Issuer promptly on demand. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, deduct any unpaid amount from any Coupons, Maturity Redemption Amount or Early Redemption Amount payable to the Holder under the Terms of the Note.

Unless specifically provided for in the Terms for a particular Series of Notes, there will be no gross up for any Taxes deducted so investors will derive a lower return from their Notes if withholding is applicable.

Foreign Exchange

Where a series is denominated in a currency other than Australian dollars, all amounts received from the Notes should be converted into Australian dollars at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the time the investor derives that assessable income. When a non-AUD denominated Note is redeemed or disposed of prior to maturity, a forex realisation gain or loss may also arise under Division 775 of the Australian Tax Act. Forex realisation gains and losses recognised under those provisions are assessable income or deductible expenses for Australian residents subject to certain exceptions.

Investors should consult their tax advisors as to the implications under the foreign exchange provisions of the Australian Tax Act and regulations when investing in a non-AUD Series.

Taxation of Financial Arrangements ("TOFA")

Division 230 of the Australian Tax Act generally operates to tax gains and losses arising from certain "financial arrangements" on revenue account and in some cases on a compounding accruals basis. A Note is likely to be a "financial arrangement" for the purposes of Division 230 of the Australian Tax Act.

Investors who are individuals should be exempt from the application of TOFA. Other entities, including superannuation funds, managed investment schemes and financial entities which are considered small may also qualify for an exemption unless they make an election for TOFA to apply to them.

Investors should consult their tax advisors as to the potential implications of TOFA in light of their own individual facts and circumstances.

Stamp duty and similar taxes

No ad valorem stamp, issue, registration or similar taxes are payable in Australia on the issue or transfer of any Notes.

Goods and Services tax ("GST")

None of the acquisition, disposal or redemption of a Note will give rise to a liability for GST in Australia on the basis that the supply of a Note comprises either an input taxed financial supply or, in the case of a non-resident investor, a GST-free supply. Furthermore, none of the payment of the Maturity Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Periodic Coupons and Maturity Coupon by the Issuer, nor the delivery of Entitlement Shares, would give rise to any GST liability in Australia.

Garnishee directions by the Commissioner of Taxation

The Commissioner may give a direction requiring the Issuer to deduct from any payment to an investor any amount in respect of Australian tax payable by the investor. If the Issuer is served with such a direction, then the Issuer will comply with that direction and make any deduction required by that direction.

Common Reporting Standard

The OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information ("CRS") will require certain financial institutions to report information regarding certain accounts (which may include a Note) to their local tax authority and follow related due diligence procedures. Investors may be requested to provide certain information and certifications to ensure compliance with the CRS. A jurisdiction that has signed a CRS Competent Authority Agreement may provide this information to other jurisdictions that have signed the CRS Competent Authority Agreement.

The Australian Government has enacted legislation amending, among other things, the Taxation Administration Act 1953 of Australia to give effect to the CRS. The CRS applies to Australian financial institutions with effect from 1 July 2017.

Section 8 – General Terms and Conditions applicable to all Notes ("General Conditions")

1 Interpretation

In the General Conditions, unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) a reference to "Australian Dollars", "AUD" or "A$" is a reference to the lawful currency of the Commonwealth of Australia;
- (b) a reference to a statute, ordinance, code or other law includes regulations and other instruments under it and consolidations, amendments, re-enactments or replacements of any of them;
- (c) a reference to the "Corporations Act" is to the Corporations Act 2001 of Australia;
- (d) the singular includes the plural and vice versa;
- (e) the word "person" includes an individual, a firm, body corporate, an unincorporated association or an authority;
- (f) a reference to a person includes a reference to the person's executors, administrators, successors, substitutes (including, without limitation, persons taking by novation) and assigns;
- (g) a reference to any thing (including, without limitation, any amount) is a reference to the whole and each part of it and a reference to a group of persons is a reference to all of them collectively and to each of them individually;
- (h) the words "including", "for example" or "such as" when introducing an example, do not limit the meaning of the words to which the example relates to that example or examples of a similar kind;
- (i) a reference to a deed poll, deed, agreement or another instrument includes any variation or replacement of it;
- (j) a reference to a time of day is a reference to that time in Sydney;
- (k) a reference to an accounting term is a reference to that term as it is used in accounting standards under the Corporations Act, or, if not inconsistent with those standards, in accounting principles and practices generally accepted in Australia; and
- (l) a reference to giving notice is a reference to giving notice in accordance with the terms of General Condition 16.

2 Headings

Headings are inserted for convenience and do not affect the interpretation of the General Conditions.

3 References to particular terms

Unless the contrary intention appears, in the Terms of a Note:

- (a) a reference to an Agency Agreement is a reference to each Agency Agreement applicable to the Notes of the relevant Series;
- (b) a reference to a Note is a reference to a Note of a particular Series issued by the Issuer as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement;
- (c) a reference to a Holder is a reference to the holder of Notes of a particular Series;

- (d) a reference to a Pricing Supplement is a reference to the relevant Pricing Supplement applicable to the Notes of the particular Series specified in that Pricing Supplement; and
- (e) if the Notes are Zero Coupon Notes, references to interest are not applicable.

4 References to principal and interest

Unless the contrary intention appears, in the General Conditions:

- (a) the principal amount of a Note which is to vary by reference to a schedule or formula (where such determination has been previously made in accordance with the Product Conditions) is to be taken as at any time to equal its varied amount; and
- (b) the principal amount of an Instalment Note at any time is to be taken to be its Denomination less the total instalments repaid to the extent that such instalments relate to a repayment of principal.

5 Terms defined in Pricing Supplement

Terms which are defined in the relevant Pricing Supplement as having a defined meaning have the same meaning when used in the Product Conditions but if the Pricing Supplement specifies that the definition is "Not Applicable", then that definition is not applicable to the Notes.

6 Definitions

Affiliate means in relation to any entity (the "First Entity"), any entity controlled, directly or indirectly, by the First Entity, any entity that controls, directly or indirectly, the First Entity or any entity directly or indirectly under common control with the First Entity. For these purposes "control" means ownership of a majority of the voting power of an entity.

Agent means the Registrar, the Calculation Agent or the Issuing and Paying Agent, as the context requires or permits.

Agency Agreement means:

- (a) the agreement entitled "Agency and Registry Services Agreement" dated 24 April 2019 between the Issuers and The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited;
- (b) any other agreement between the Issuers and a Registrar in relation to the establishment and maintenance of a Register (and/or the performance of any payment or other duties) for any issue of Notes; and

Specified Currency means the currency of the Denomination as stated in the Pricing Supplement for a Series of Notes.

Subscription Agreement means an agreement between the Issuer and a Dealer pursuant to which the Dealer subscribes for a Series of Notes.

Taxes mean any taxes, levies, duties, charges, deductions or withholding of any nature whatsoever, now or hereafter imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed in or on behalf of a Relevant Jurisdiction or such other place as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, in respect of a payment or delivery made under the Terms of a Note.)

Terms mean, in respect of a Series, the Product Conditions applicable to the Series as supplemented, amended, modified or replaced by the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Tranche means an issue of Notes specified as such in the Pricing Supplement for that Tranche and issued on the same Terms as other Tranches of Notes in the same Series (other than, to the extent relevant, in respect of the Issue Price and the first payment of interest).

Underlying Asset Conditions means, in respect of a Product or a Series of Notes, the terms and conditions set out in Section 1 of the Part 2 IM for the relevant Product or Series.

Underlying Asset(s) means the underlying asset(s) that is/are referenced in a Note, which may include a share or security (including a preference share), an index (whether share index, commodity index, credit index, inflation index or otherwise), a fund, a commodity, a foreign exchange rate, credit risk of a reference entity, an interest rate, any other financial, economic or other measures or instruments including the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event or circumstances, baskets of any of the foregoing, a derivative contract in relation to any of the foregoing, any other combination of any of the foregoing.

Zero Coupon Note means a Note which does not carry entitlement to periodic payment of interest or Coupons before the redemption date of the Note and which is issued at a discount to its Principal Amount.

7 Form, status, denomination

7.1 Program

- (a) Notes are issued under the Program.
- (b) Notes are issued in Series and each Series may comprise one or more Tranches.

7.2 General Conditions, Product Conditions and Pricing Supplement

- (a) The Notes are issued on these General Conditions together with the terms set out in the Product Conditions, in each case as supplemented, amended, modified or replaced by the relevant Pricing Supplement applicable to those Notes. When interpreting and defining the Terms of a Note:
 - (i) to the extent of any inconsistency between the General Conditions and the Underlying Asset Conditions – the Underlying Asset Conditions will prevail;
 - (ii) to the extent of any inconsistency between the Underlying Asset Conditions and the Specific Terms to the Series of Notes – the Specific Terms applicable to the Series of Notes will prevail; and
 - (iii) to the extent of any inconsistency between the Specific Terms applicable to the Series of Notes and the Pricing Supplement applicable to the Series of Notes – the Pricing Supplement applicable to the Series of Notes will prevail.
- (b) Copies of the relevant Pricing Supplement are available for inspection upon request by a Holder or prospective Holder during normal business hours at the specified office of the Issuer or the Registrar or are otherwise available on reasonable request from the Issuer or the Registrar.

7.3 Status

- (a) The subscription for Notes is a loan to the Issuer which is repaid or otherwise discharged in accordance with the Terms of the Note. The Holder will be taken to have lent the Notional Amount per Note to the Issuer, notwithstanding the Issue Price of the Notes may be more or less than the Notional Amount.
- (b) The Notes are direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu among themselves and (save for certain debts required to be preferred by law) equally with all other outstanding unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer.
- (c) Subject to applicable law, no Holder may exercise or claim any right of set-off, compensation or retention in respect of any amount owed to it by the Issuer, arising under or in connection with the Notes and each Holder shall, by virtue of the subscription, purchase or holding of any Note, be deemed to have waived all such rights of set-off, compensation or retention.

7.4 Form of Notes

- (a) The Notes are registered debt obligations of the Issuer constituted by, and owing under, the Deed Poll and take the form of entries in the Register. Each entry in the Register constitutes a separate and individual acknowledgment to the relevant Holder of the indebtedness of the Issuer to that Holder. Each Tranche of Notes will be represented by either a Global Certificate or an Individual Certificate, in each case as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

- (b) Each Global Certificate will be deposited on or around the relevant Issue Date with a depository or a common depository for the relevant Clearing System and registered in the name of a nominee for such depository and will be exchangeable for Individual Certificates in accordance with its terms.
- (c) If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the relevant Notes as being represented by Individual Certificates, then the Notes will at all times be in the form of Individual Certificates issued to each Holder in respect of such Holder's entire holding. Each Individual Certificate will be numbered serially with an identifying number which will be recorded in the Registrar.
- (d) If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the relevant Notes as being represented by Global Certificates which are exchangeable for Individual Certificates, then the Notes will initially be represented by a Global Certificate which will be exchanged by the relevant Issuer (in whole but not in part only) for Individual Certificates:
 - (i) if an Event of Default occurs in respect of any Notes of the relevant Series; or
 - (ii) if Clearstream or any other relevant Clearing System is closed for business for a continuous period of fourteen days (other than by reason of public holidays) or announces an intention to cease business permanently or in fact does so.
- (e) The terms and conditions applicable to any Individual Certificate will be endorsed on that Individual Certificate and will consist of the Terms including the provisions of the relevant Pricing Supplement which supplement, amend and/or replace those terms and conditions.

7.5 Denomination and issue restrictions

Notes in each Series are issued in the Denomination specified in the Pricing Supplement for that Series. Notes can only be issued and interests in Notes can only be transferred in an integral number of Notes (referred to as the "Minimum Trading Size" in the relevant Pricing Supplement). Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, may only be offered (directly or indirectly) for issue or applications invited for the issue of Notes if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the offer or invitation for the issue of the Notes does not require disclosure to investors under Parts 6D.2 or 7.9 of the Corporations Act;
- (b) the offer or invitation does not constitute an offer to "retail clients" for the purposes of Chapter 7 of the Corporations Act;
- (c) the offer or invitation (including any resulting issue) complies with all other applicable laws in the jurisdiction in which the issue takes place; and
- (d) any Notes issued by UBS AG are not offered, issued or resold to persons or non-incorporated entities for an aggregate amount payable of less than A$250,000 (or its foreign currency equivalent) in Australia.

7.6 Independent obligations

The obligations of the Issuer in respect of each Note issued by it constitute separate and independent obligations which the Holder to whom those obligations are owed is entitled to enforce without having to join any other Holder or any predecessor in title of a Holder.

7.7 Currency

Subject to compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements, Notes may be denominated in Australian Dollars or an alternative currency, in each case as specified in the Pricing Supplement.

8 Title

8.1 Register

The Registrar will establish and maintain the Register in accordance with the Agency Agreement.

8.2 Register conclusive

Each entry in the Register in respect of a Note constitutes conclusive evidence that the person so entered is the registered owner of that Note subject to rectification for fraud or error. The person(s) registered in the Register as a Holder of a Note will be treated by the Issuer and the Registrar as absolute owner of that Note for all purposes whether or not the relevant Note is overdue and notwithstanding any notice of ownership. In addition, in relation to any Note, neither the Issuer nor the Registrar are, except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, obliged to take notice of any other claim to a Note. Neither the Issuer nor the Registrar shall be required to obtain any proof of ownership of the relevant Note or the identity of the relevant Holder.

8.3 Holder absolutely entitled

Upon a person acquiring title to any Note by virtue of becoming registered as the owner of that Note, all rights and entitlements arising by virtue of the Deed Poll in respect of that Note vest absolutely in the registered owner of the Note, such that no person who has previously been registered as the owner of the Note has or is entitled to assert against the Issuer or the Registrar or the registered owner of the Note for the time being and from time to time any rights, benefits or entitlements in respect of the Note.

8.4 Clearing Systems

If the Notes are held in a Clearing System, the rights of a person holding an interest in those Notes are subject to the rules and regulations of the Clearing System. The Issuer is not responsible for anything the Clearing System does or omits to do.

9 Transfers

9.1 Limit on transfer

- (a) Notes may only be transferred in whole and may not be transferred in part.
- (b) Unless expressly permitted in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Notes may not be offered, sold or transferred in any jurisdiction other than Australia.
- (c) Unless otherwise specified in the Product Conditions, Notes may only be transferred if:
 - (i) in the case of Notes to be transferred in Australia:
 - A. the offer or invitation for the transfer does not require disclosure to investors under Parts 6D.2 or 7.9 of the Corporations Act; and
 - B. the transfer is not to a retail client for the purpose of section 761G of the Corporations Act; and
 - (ii) at all times, the transfer complies with all applicable laws or directives of the jurisdiction where the transfer takes place.

9.2 Transfer procedures

- (a) All transactions involving the Notes (including transfers), in the open market or otherwise, must be effected through an account with the Clearing System specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. Notes entered in a Clearing System will be transferable only in accordance with the rules and regulations of that Clearing System. If a Note is lodged in a Clearing System, neither the Issuer nor the relevant Registrar will recognise any such interest other than the interest of the Clearing System as the Holder while that Note is lodged in the Clearing System.

- (b) Unless Notes are lodged in a Clearing System, application for the transfer of Notes must be made by the lodgement of a transfer form with the Registrar. If required, the Issuer undertakes to make transfer forms available from either itself or the Registrar. Each form must be accompanied by such evidence as may be required to prove the title of the transferor or the transferor's right to transfer the Note and be signed by both the transferor and the transferee.
- (c) Interests in the Notes may only be transferred in at least the Denomination and in integral multiples of the Denomination.

9.3 Registration of transfer

The transferor of a Note remains the Holder of that Note until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of that Note. The Issuer intends to instruct the Registrar to refrain from registering transfers of Notes which are not lodged in a Clearing System during the period from the Ex Date until the Business Day after the Relevant Date for payment.

9.4 No charge on transfer

Transfers will be registered without charge provided taxes, duties or other governmental charges (if any) imposed in relation to the transfer have been paid.

9.5 Estates

A person becoming entitled to a Note as a consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Holder or of a vesting order or a person administering the estate of a Holder may, upon producing such evidence as to that entitlement or status as the Issuer of that Note and the Registrar considers sufficient, transfer the Note or, if so entitled, become registered as the holder of the Note.

9.6 Unincorporated associations

A transfer of a Note to an association that is an unincorporated association is not permitted.

9.7 Transfer of unidentified Notes

Where the transferor executes a transfer of less than all Notes registered in its name, and the specific Notes to be transferred are not identified, the Registrar may register the transfer in respect of such of the Notes registered in the name of the transferor as the Registrar thinks fit, provided the aggregate principal amount of the Notes registered as having been transferred equals the aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes expressed to be transferred in the transfer and the transfer is otherwise in accordance with the Product Conditions.

9.8 Stamp Duty

The Issuer must bear any stamp duty payable on the issue and subscription of the Notes which it issues.

The Holder is responsible for any stamp duties or other similar taxes which are payable in any jurisdiction in connection with any transfer, assignment or any other dealing with the Notes.

The Holder is responsible for any stamp duties or other taxes which are payable in any jurisdiction in connection with any transfer or delivery of assets relating to the redemption of Notes.

10 Adjustments

- (a) If the Calculation Agent determines in its absolute discretion that an event has occurred which has a diluting, concentrative or any other effect on the actual or theoretical value of an Underlying Asset for a Series of Note, then following each such event, the Calculation Agent shall determine the corresponding adjustment (if any) to the Terms of the affected Series of Notes (including adjusting the amount or method of calculating the Maturity Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Periodic Coupons, Maturity Coupons, Entitlement Shares or any other payment or delivery applicable to the Notes), as the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion determines is appropriate to account for that diluting, concentrative or other effect, and determine the effective date of that adjustment.

- (b) General Condition 10(a) does not limit the Issuer's or the Calculation Agent's discretion to make adjustments or determinations under the Product Conditions or Pricing Supplement applicable to a specific Series of Notes.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer's right to effect early redemption is not affected by the Calculation Agent's right to make adjustments under this General Condition 10(a).

11 Redemption and purchase

11.1 Final redemption

- (a) At maturity, unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled, each Note in a Series will be redeemed or repaid (as the case may be) by the Issuer at its Maturity Redemption Amount. The Maturity Redemption Amount will be determined by the Calculation Agent or the Issuer (as applicable) in accordance with the Product Conditions as supplemented by the Pricing Supplement for the relevant Series and is payable by the Issuer to the Holder on the Maturity Settlement Date.
- (b) Assuming there is no early redemption or Mandatory Redemption Event, the payment of each Note's Maturity Redemption Amount will redeem the Note in full and discharge all of the Issuer's obligations in connection with the money lent to the Issuer on issuance of the Note. If Physical Delivery is applicable to a Series then the Issuer's obligation to pay the Maturity Redemption Amount will be satisfied by delivery of Entitlement Shares to the Holder.

11.2 Purchase of Notes

The Issuer or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates may at any time purchase one or more Notes at any price in the open market, by tender, by private treaty or otherwise. All unmatured Notes purchased in accordance with this General Condition 11.2 may be held, resold, reissued or cancelled at the discretion of the Issuer, subject to compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements.

11.3 Instalment Notes

If the Notes are repayable in instalments ("Instalment Notes"), they will be redeemed in the instalment amounts specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and on the instalment dates specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. In the case of early redemption, the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) or the Optional Redemption Amount (Put) will be determined as relevant pursuant to General Conditions 11.6 (Early redemption at the option of the Issuer) and 11.7 (Early redemption at the option of the relevant Holders) respectively.

11.4 Redemption for taxation reasons

- (a) If the Issuer, on the occasion of the next payment due in respect of the Notes, would be required to make any withholding or deduction referred to in General Condition 12.5 (Taxation and Fiscal laws) or the Issuer is required to pay any Additional Amounts under General Condition 12.6 (Additional Amounts), then the Issuer may, but is not obliged to, redeem all (i.e. not some only) of the Notes at the Early Redemption Amount for each Note on the Early Maturity Settlement Date. The Issuer has discretion to designate the Early Maturity Valuation Date and must give not more than 60 or less than 30 days' prior notice to the Registrar, the Issuing and Paying Agent and the relevant Holders in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices) of the Early Maturity Valuation Date. To the extent the Issuer or its Affiliates has paid or is required to pay any amount as a result of any withholding or deduction on account of Taxes referred to in General Condition 12.5, the Early Redemption Amount payable by the Issuer shall be reduced by such amount paid or payable. For the avoidance of doubt, no Periodic Coupon or Maturity Coupon will be paid in addition to the Early Redemption Amount.

- (b) Prior to publication of any such notice of redemption, the Issuer shall deliver to the Registrar a certificate signed by an authorised person of the Issuer to notify the Registrar that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer to redeem the Notes have occurred.
- (c) Any notice given under this General Condition 11.4 (Redemption for taxation reasons) is irrevocable and obliges the Issuer to redeem the Notes at the time and in the manner specified in the notice.

11.5 Redemption for other reasons

The Terms of a Series of Notes may specify additional circumstances under which the Issuer may require the Series of Notes to be redeemed prior to the scheduled Maturity Settlement Date for taxation reasons.

11.6 Early redemption at the option of the Issuer

- (a) If this General Condition 11.6 (Early redemption at the option of the Issuer) is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable then the Issuer having given at least the minimum period (if any) (but not more than the maximum period (if any)) of notice specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement to the relevant Holders in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices) (which notice must comply with the following paragraph and shall be irrevocable) and subject to satisfaction of any relevant conditions specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, may redeem all (but not, unless and to the extent that the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies otherwise, some only) of the Notes on any Business Day (being, in the case of interest bearing Notes (unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement), an Interest Payment Date) at their Early Redemption Amount applicable for calls by the Issuer (such amount being the "Optional Redemption Amount (Call)").
- (b) The Optional Redemption Amount (Call) is the Outstanding Principal Amount per Note or such other Optional Redemption Amount (Call) as is specified in, or determined in accordance with, the relevant Pricing Supplement plus or net of any other amounts specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
- (c) The notice referred to in the preceding paragraph shall specify:
 - (i) the Series of Notes subject to redemption;
 - (ii) subject to the relevant Pricing Supplement specifying that a partial redemption is permissible, whether such Series is to be redeemed in whole or in part only and, if in part only, the aggregate principal amount of the Notes of the relevant Series which are to be redeemed;
 - (iii) the due date for redemption;
 - (iv) the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) at which such Notes are to be redeemed; and
 - (v) whether or not accrued interest or other amounts are to be paid upon redemption and, if so, the amount thereof or the basis or method of calculation thereof, all as provided in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
- (d) In the case of a partial redemption of Notes, the Notes to be redeemed will be selected by the Registrar, and notice of the Notes selected for redemption will be given in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices) not less than 15 days (or such other period specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) prior to the date fixed for redemption.
- (e) Any notice given under this General Condition 11.6 (Early redemption at the option of the Issuer) is irrevocable and obliges the Issuer to redeem the Notes at the time and in the manner specified in the notice.

11.7 Early redemption at the option of the relevant Holders

- (a) If this General Condition 11.7 (Early redemption at the option of the relevant Holders) is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable and provided the relevant Holders have given at least the minimum period (if any), but not more than the maximum period (if any), of notice specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement to the Issuer (as the case may be), which notice must be in the form of the redemption notice mentioned in the paragraph below and shall be irrevocable, then, subject to satisfaction of any relevant conditions specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, at the option of the Holder, the Issuer will redeem the relevant Note(s) on any Business Day (being, in the case of interest bearing Notes (unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) an Interest Payment Date) at the Early Redemption Amount applicable for puts (such amount being the "Optional Redemption Amount (Put)").

- (b) The Optional Redemption Amount (Put) is the Outstanding Principal Amount per Note or such other Optional Redemption Amount (Put) as is specified in, or determined in accordance with, the relevant Pricing Supplement plus or net of any other amounts specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
- (c) To exercise such option, the Holder must complete, sign and deliver to the specified offices of each of the Issuer and the Registrar not less than 45 days (or such other period specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) before the redemption date (or such other period as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement), a redemption notice (in the form obtainable from the Issuer) together with such evidence as the Registrar may require to establish the rights of that Holder to the relevant Notes.

11.8 Early redemption

- (a) The Product Conditions or Pricing Supplement may specify:
 - (i) circumstances under which the Notes in a Series will be redeemed on or prior to the scheduled Maturity Settlement Date following the occurrence of a Mandatory Redemption Event;
 - (ii) the Issuer's obligations under the Notes if a Mandatory Redemption Event occurs; and
 - (iii) if and when notice is to be provided to Holders in respect of a Mandatory Redemption Event.
- (b) The Product Conditions or Pricing Supplement may also specify circumstances under which the Issuer has discretion to redeem the Notes prior to the scheduled Maturity Settlement Date, and if the Issuer elects to exercise this discretion, the Issuer must:
 - (i) designate an Early Maturity Valuation Date, which is the date as of which the Issuer or Calculation Agent (as applicable) will determine the Early Redemption Amount per Note;
 - (ii) promptly notify the Holders of the Early Redemption Amount once it is determined; and
 - (iii) specify the Early Maturity Settlement Date on which the Early Redemption Amount will be paid to the Holder.

12 Payments

12.1 Record Date

Payments to holders of Notes will be made according to the particulars recorded in the Register on the relevant Record Date.

12.2 Joint holders

When a Note is held jointly, payment will be made to the holders in their joint names unless requested otherwise.

12.3 Method of payments

Payments in respect of each Note issued by the Issuer will be made:

- (a) where the Notes are in a Clearing System, in accordance with the rules and regulations of that Clearing System; or

- (b) if the relevant Notes are not in a Clearing System, by crediting on the payment date the amount then due to an account previously notified by the Holder in respect of that Note to the Issuer and the Registrar. If the Holder has not notified the Issuer and the Registrar of such an account by close of business on the relevant Record Date or upon application by the Holder of the relevant Note to the Issuer and the Registrar no later than close of business on the relevant Record Date, payments in respect of the relevant Note will be made by cheque, mailed on the relevant payment date in the case of payments of interest or Coupons, or on the due date for redemption or repayment in the case of payments of principal, at the risk of the Holder (or to the first named of joint registered Holders) of such Note at the address appearing in the Register as at the Record Date. Cheques to be dispatched to the nominated address of a Holder will in such cases be deemed to have been received by the Holder on the relevant payment date and no further amount will be payable by the Issuer in respect of the relevant Note as a result of payment not being received by the Holder on the due date.

12.4 Business Days

All payments in respect of a Note will be made in accordance with the Applicable Business Day Convention.

12.5 Taxation and Fiscal laws

- (a) This General Condition 12.5 (Taxation and Fiscal Laws) applies to a Series of Notes unless it is specifically stated as inapplicable in the Product Conditions or the Pricing Supplement for the Series of Notes. In General Conditions 12.5 and 12.6, for the purpose of determining whether an amount needs to be withheld or deducted on account of Taxes, "Holder" includes the person whose name appears on the Register and anyone on whose behalf an interest in the Note is held.
- (b) Payments in respect of principal, interest and amounts in the nature of interest on the Notes are subject in all cases to applicable provisions of fiscal and other laws and regulations.
- (c) If an amount is required by law to be withheld or deducted from a payment due to a Holder under a Note for or on account of any Taxes (including, without limitation, as a result of an Australian resident Holder failing to supply an appropriate Australian tax file number, Australian Business Number or details of an applicable exemption from those requirements) then the Issuer or any person with the authority or obligation to withhold Taxes in respect of that payment may withhold such applicable amount of Taxes and pass that amount on to the relevant taxing authority before the remainder (if any) of the payment amount is paid to the Holder. Alternatively, if payment is or has been made to the Holder without deduction or withholding then the Issuer is entitled to recover from the Holder as a full recourse debt the amount that has been or is required to be remitted to the taxing authority and the Holder must pay such amount to the Issuer promptly on demand. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, deduct any unpaid amount from any Coupons, Maturity Redemption Amount or Early Redemption Amount payable to the Holder.
- (d) Unless General Condition 12.6 (Additional Amounts) is specified in the relevant Product Conditions or Pricing Supplement as applicable to a Series of Notes, nothing imposes any obligation or liability whatsoever on the Issuer or any other person to reimburse, compensate or make any payment to a Holder of those Notes for, or in respect of, any Taxes withheld or deducted either by the Issuer itself or by a third party.
- (e) If there is no requirement to withhold or deduct any Taxes from a payment due to a Holder then the Issuer will pay the amount due to the Holder in one or more payments by whatever electronic means it deems appropriate, which may or may not involve processing through the Clearing System.
- (f) Notwithstanding any other provisions contained herein, the Issuer shall be permitted to withhold or deduct any amounts required by the rules of section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") (or any amended or successor provisions (relating to withholding or dividend equivalent payments) or sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, or any amended or successor provisions, pursuant to any intergovernmental agreement or implementing legislation adopted by another jurisdiction in connection with these provisions, or pursuant to any agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("FATCA withholding") as a result of a holder, beneficial owner or an intermediary that is not an agent of the Issuer not being entitled to receive payments free of FATCA withholding. The Issuer will have no obligation to pay additional amounts or otherwise indemnify a Holder for any such withholding deducted or withheld by the Issuer, the Issuing and Paying Agent or any other party.

12.6 Additional Amounts

- (a) This General Condition 12.6 (Additional Amounts) does not apply to a Series of Notes unless it is specifically stated as applicable in the Product Conditions or the Pricing Supplement for the Series of Notes. If this General Condition 12.6 (Additional Amounts) is applicable to a Series of Notes and a Tax is levied and payable on a payment of principal, interest, Periodic Coupons or Maturity Coupons in respect of a Note by a Relevant Jurisdiction, the Issuer will pay such additional amounts (“Additional Amounts”) as may be necessary in order that the net amount received by the relevant Holder after such withholding or deduction equals the respective amounts which would otherwise have been received by the Holder in respect of the relevant Notes in the absence of such withholding or deduction, except that no Additional Amounts are payable in relation to any payments in respect of any Note:
- (i) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is liable to such Taxes in respect of such Note by reason of the Holder having some connection with a Relevant Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of such Note or receipt of principal or interest in respect of it. A Holder is not regarded as being connected with the Commonwealth of Australia for the reason that such a holder is a resident of the Commonwealth of Australia within the meaning of the Australian Tax Act where, and to the extent that, such tax is payable by reason of section 128B(2A) of the Australian Tax Act;
 - (ii) where such withholding or deduction is imposed on a payment to an individual or a residual entity and is required to be made pursuant to European Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income, the related agreements between the EU Member States with certain territories dependent or associated with an EU Member State or any other directive implementing the conclusions of the ECOFIN Council meeting of 26-27 November 2000, or any law implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such Directive including, but not limited to, the agreement between the European Union and Switzerland of 26 October 2004, providing for measures equivalent to those laid down in such Directive;
 - (iii) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by arranging to receive payment through another Issuing and Paying Agent in an EU Member State;
 - (iv) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who could lawfully avoid (but has not so avoided) such deduction or withholding by complying or procuring that any third party complies with any statutory requirements or by making or procuring that any third party makes a declaration of non-residence or similar cause for exemption to any tax authority in the place where payment under the Note is made;
 - (v) presented for payment more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that a Holder would have been entitled to Additional Amounts on presenting the same for payment on the last day of the period of 30 days assuming, whether or not such is in fact the case, that day to have been a Business Day;
 - (vi) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is liable to the Taxes in respect of a Note by reason of the Holder being an Offshore Associate of the Issuer for the purposes of section 128F(6) of the Australian Tax Act;
 - (vii) to, or to a third party on behalf of an Australian resident Holder, if that person has not supplied an appropriate Australian tax file number, Australian Business Number or details of an applicable exemption from these requirements; and
 - (viii) in such other circumstances as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
- (b) In respect of the exclusions set out in subparagraphs (i) to (viii) of General Condition 12.6(a), if payment has been made by the Issuer without deduction or withholding then the Issuer is entitled to recover from the Holder as a full recourse debt the amount that is actually or is required to be withheld or deducted and the Holder must pay such amount to the Issuer promptly on demand. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, deduct any unpaid amount from any Coupons, Maturity Redemption Amount or Early Redemption Amount payable to the Holder.

- (c) There shall be no more than one Additional Amount payable by the Issuer in respect of a payment that is subject to a Tax as described in this General Condition 12.6. The Issuer may pay the Additional Amount by whatever electronic means it deems appropriate to the Holder, which may or may not involve processing through the Clearing System.
- (d) Notwithstanding any other provisions contained herein, the Issuer shall be permitted to withhold or deduct any amounts required by the rules of section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") (or any amended or successor provisions (relating to withholding or dividend equivalent payments) or sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, or any amended or successor provisions, pursuant to any intergovernmental agreement or implementing legislation adopted by another jurisdiction in connection with these provisions, or pursuant to any agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("FATCA withholding") as a result of a holder, beneficial owner or an intermediary that is not an agent of the Issuer not being entitled to receive payments free of FATCA withholding. The Issuer will have no obligation to pay additional amounts or otherwise indemnify an investor for any such withholding deducted or withheld by the Issuer, the paying agent or any other party.

13 Currency indemnity

The Issuer waives any rights that it has in any jurisdiction to pay an amount other than in the currency in which it is due. However, if a Holder receives an amount in a currency other than that in which it is due:

- (a) it may convert the amount received into the due currency (even though it may be necessary to convert through a third currency to do so) on the day and at such rates (including spot rate, same day value rate or value tomorrow rate) as it reasonably consider appropriate. It may deduct its usual costs in connection with the conversion); and
- (b) the Issuer satisfies its obligations to pay in the due currency only to the extent of the amount of the due currency obtained from the conversion after deducting the costs of the conversion.

14 Prescription

A claim against the Issuer for a payment under a Note is void unless such claim is made within a period of 10 years in the case of principal, and 5 years in the case of payments other than principal, of the due date, or, if later, the date on which the payment is fully provided for by the Issuer making payments to the Registrar in accordance with General Condition 12.3(b) (Methods of payment).

15 Events of Default

15.1 Events of Default - Notes

The following events shall constitute an "Event of Default" for the purposes of the Notes:

- (a) there is a default for more than 30 days in the payment of any principal, interest, Periodic Coupon, Maturity Coupon, or Maturity Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount or in any Physical Delivery in respect of the Notes;
- (b) there is a default in the performance by the Issuer of any other obligation under the Notes which is incapable of remedy or which, being a default capable of remedy, continues for 60 days after written notice of such default has been given by any Holder to the Issuer;
- (c) any order shall be made by any competent court or other authority or resolution passed by the Issuer for the dissolution or winding-up of the Issuer or for the appointment of a liquidator, receiver, administrator or manager of the Issuer or of all or a substantial part of its assets, or anything analogous occurs, in any jurisdiction, to the Issuer, other than in connection with a solvent reorganisation, reconstruction, amalgamation or merger; or

- (d) the Issuer shall stop payment or shall be unable to, or shall admit to creditors generally its inability to, pay its debts as they fall due, or shall be adjudicated or found bankrupt or insolvent, or shall enter into any composition or other arrangements with its creditors generally.

15.2 Consequences of an Event of Default

Subject to General Condition 15.3 (Rectification) if, any Event of Default occurs with respect to a Note and is continuing in relation to that Note, then a Holder may, by written notice to the Issuer (with a copy to the Registrar), declare the Early Redemption Amount (together with all accrued interest (if any)) applicable to each relevant Note held by the Holder to be due and payable immediately or on such other date specified in the notice. For the avoidance of doubt, accrued interest does not include any Coupon.

15.3 Rectification

A relevant Holder's right to declare such Notes due terminates if the situation giving cause to it has been cured before such right is exercised.

15.4 Notification of Event of Default

If an Event of Default occurs, the Issuer must promptly after becoming aware of it notify the Registrar of the occurrence of the Event of Default (specifying details of it) and procure that the Registrar promptly notifies the relevant Holders of the occurrence of the Event of Default by registered post to the address of the relevant Holder recorded in the Register.

16 Notices

16.1 To the Issuer and the Registrar

A notice or other communication in connection with a Note to the Issuer, the Registrar or the relevant Issuing and Paying Agent must be in writing and may be given by prepaid post or delivery to the address of the addressee or by email to the email address of the addressee:

- (a) in the Information Memorandum; or
- (b) as otherwise agreed between those parties from time to time and notified to the Holders.

16.2 To Holders

A notice or other communication in connection with a Note to the Holder must be in writing and may be given:

- (a) by email to the Holder at the email address provided by the Holder to the Issuer or Registrar; or
- (b) by email to the Registrar at the email address provided by the Registrar to the Issuer; or
- (c) by prepaid post (airmail if posted to or from a place outside Australia) or delivery to the address of each Holder as shown in the Register at the close of business 3 Business Days prior to the dispatch of the relevant notice or communication; or
- (d) in a manner consistent with the rules and regulations of the Clearing System in which the Notes are lodged; or
- (e) by such other means as agreed between the Issuer and the Holder from time to time.

16.3 Effective on receipt

Unless a later time is specified in it, a notice, approval, consent or other communication takes effect from the time it is received, except that if it is received after 5:00pm in the place of receipt or on a non-business day in that place, it is to be taken to be received at 9:00am on the next succeeding business day in that place.

16.4 Proof of receipt

Subject to General Condition 16.3 (Effective on receipt), proof of posting of a letter or of dispatch of an email or of publication of a notice is proof of receipt:

- (a) in the case of a letter, on the third (seventh, if outside Australia) day after posting;
- (b) in the case of an email, on conclusion of transmission provided no delivery error message is received by the provider of the notice; and
- (c) in the case of publication, on the date of such publication.

16.5 Non-receipt of notice

In the event that there are two or more Holders, the non-receipt of any notice by, or the accidental omission to give any such notice to, a Holder does not invalidate the giving of that notice.

17 Meetings of Holders

17.1 Meetings of Holders may be convened in accordance with the Meetings Provisions. Any such meeting may consider any matters affecting the interests of Holders, including, without limitation, the variation of the terms of the Notes by the Issuer and the granting of approvals, consents and waivers, and the declaration of an Event of Default.

17.2 A resolution duly passed at a meeting convened in accordance with the Meetings Provisions will be binding on all the Holders (whether present at the meeting or not).

18 Invalidity and Amendments

18.1 Invalidity

Should any of the provisions contained in the Product Conditions be or become invalid, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected in any way.

18.2 On a Series-by-Series basis

The Product Conditions may be amended or supplemented to the extent to which they apply to a Series of Notes issued after the date of amendment by the terms of such Pricing Supplements as may be applicable to that Series.

18.3 To cure ambiguities

The Product Conditions and Pricing Supplement applicable to a Series of Notes may be amended by the Issuer without the consent of any Holder or the Investors for the purposes of curing any ambiguity, or correcting or supplementing any provisions therein in any manner which the Issuer may deem necessary or desirable provided that such modification is not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders as at the date of the amendment. To the extent an update to the Information Memorandum is not materially adverse to Investors (as determined by the Issuer in its sole reasonable opinion), the Issuer will provide such update via the posting of a notice of the change on its website at www.ubs.com/equitysolutions. The Issuer will provide a paper copy of the updated information upon reasonable request.

18.4 Approval by Holders

The Product Conditions and the relevant Pricing Supplement may otherwise be varied by the Issuer in so far as they apply to Notes issued by it with the approval of the Holders by Extraordinary Resolution. No other variation to the Terms has effect in relation to the Holders who hold relevant Notes at the date of any amending deed, unless they otherwise agree in writing. A variation which affects only a particular Series of Notes may be approved solely by the Holders of the relevant Series and will take effect in relation to, and bind, all subsequent Holders of Notes in that Series.

19 Further Issues

The Issuer may, from time to time, without the consent of any Holder, issue further Notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes of any Series so as to form a single Series and be fungible with the Notes of that Series.

20 Limited Recourse

To the extent the Issuer (or its Affiliates or nominees) enter into securities, futures or derivatives transaction(s) ("Hedge Transactions") with any party in any jurisdiction, including, without limitation, an entity affiliated, related to or controlled by the Issuer or any entity through which the Issuer or its Affiliates or nominees purchase and/or hold interests in Underlying Assets or other relevant securities or contracts ("Hedge Counterparty") to hedge the Issuer's position under the Notes and the Hedge Counterparty for such transactions fails or delays for any reason (including a default by the local exchange or clearinghouse, a change in laws, rules or regulations applicable to the holding of the Underlying Assets or Notes, or a failure by the underlying issuer to pay or deliver any dividend, distribution of any kind or other property receivable pursuant to corporate actions or other matters affecting the Underlying Assets) to make any payment or delivery with respect to a Hedge Transaction, then the Issuer's obligation to pay any amounts or make any delivery due hereunder shall be reduced and/or delayed accordingly.

21 Benefit of Agreement

References to the Issuer include references to their successors, including, without limitation, an entity which assumes the rights and obligations of the relevant party by operation of the law of the jurisdiction of incorporation or domicile of such party.

22 Calculation Agent

In the absence of manifest error, the Calculation Agent's determination is final, conclusive and binding on the Holders and the Issuer. None of the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or the Guarantor or any Agents (as applicable) shall have responsibility to Holders or any other person for good faith errors or omissions in the Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations, whether caused by negligence or otherwise, as provided in the Terms of the Notes. No person shall be entitled to make any claim against the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or the Guarantor (as applicable) for such good faith errors or omission.

23 Agents

- (a) The Issuer reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of any Agent and to appoint other or additional Agents provided that there shall always be at least one Issuing and Paying Agent and one Calculation Agent. Notice of any such termination or appointment and of any changes in the specified office of any Agent will be given to the Holders.
- (b) Each Agent is acting solely as agent of the Issuer and does not assume any obligation or duty to, or any relationship of agency or trust for or with, any Investor or the Holder.

24 Registrar

24.1 Role of the Registrar

In acting under the applicable Agency Agreement in connection with the Notes, the Registrar acts solely as agent of the Issuer and does not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Holders.

24.2 Change of Registrar

The Issuer reserves the right at any time to terminate the appointment of the Registrar in accordance with the applicable Agency Agreement and to appoint successor or additional registrars. Notice of any such termination of appointment will be given to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices).

24.3 Appointment of replacement Registrar

If a then current Registrar ceases to be Registrar (whether as a result of termination under General Condition 24.2 (Change of Registrar), resignation as a result of the Notes ceasing to be lodged in the applicable Clearing System or otherwise), the Issuer must ensure that a replacement Registrar is appointed with effect from the relevant date.

24.4 No benefit

Nothing in the Terms, express or implied, is intended or will be construed to confer upon, or to give or grant to, any person or entity (other than the Issuer, the Registrar and the Holders) any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of the Terms or any covenant, condition or stipulation set out in these, and all covenants, stipulations, promises and agreements in the Terms contained by and on behalf of the Issuer shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Issuer, the Registrar and the Holders.

25 Information Disclosure

Details of the Notes (including the identity of the Holder) may, (a) upon request or order by any competent authority, regulatory or enforcement organisation, governmental or otherwise, including the stock exchange on which any Underlying Assets are listed, (b) as required by applicable law, rules, regulations, codes or guidelines (whether having the force of law or otherwise), be disclosed in accordance with such request, order, law, rules, regulations, codes or guidelines (whether such disclosure is to be made to third parties or otherwise). By purchasing the Notes, the Holder agrees to such disclosure and releases the Issuer and its subsidiaries and Affiliates from any duty of confidentiality owed to it in relation to such information.

26 Governing law, jurisdiction and service of process

26.1 Governing law

The Notes are governed by the laws in force in New South Wales and the Commonwealth of Australia.

26.2 Jurisdiction

The Issuer irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales and courts of appeal from them. The Issuer waives any right it has to object to an action being brought in those courts, to claim that the action has been brought in an inconvenient forum, or to claim that those courts do not have jurisdiction.

26.3 Service of process

Without preventing any other mode of service, any document in an action (including, without limitation any writ of summons or other originating process or any third or other party notice) may be served on the Issuer or the Guarantor by being delivered to or left for it at its address for service of notices specified in General Condition 16 (Notices).
